

NEWS FROM MONMOUTH

These are very busy days for Monmouth people.

Ed. Fuller is helping F. H. Mulkey harvest his potatoes.

Mrs. Clarence Boroughs and daughter, Marguerite, from South Independence, were visitors in town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Beauchamp of Stayton visited at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hawley, the first of the week.

Mrs. J. Dornise and O. A. Kramer and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hooper attended church in Monmouth Sunday night.

P. B. Arant of this place, who is teaching at Greenwood, was home Sunday, returning Monday.

The people in this vicinity are finishing gathering in the potato crop. The yield is not heavy but the quality is quite good.

While we say hurrah for President Taft we cannot but admit Mr. Bryan as being the most popular man in the world today, and we shouldn't be surprised if he comes up again, like a "McGinty," four years hence.

E. W. Strong's family went over to Dallas Sunday afternoon in their automobile. The roads were fine for autoing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rogers of Balm Grove are having their infant son treated by Dr. Crowley.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Taylor of Oak Grove were pleasant visitors in town over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thell, who built the home where Rev. W. A. Wood now lives, were visiting old friends in Monmouth the last of the week.

Miss Edith Wolverton of this place attended the celebration of her great grandmother's ninety-third birthday November 8th at I. M. Simpson's on the Luckiamute. The aged lady lives with Mr. Simpson, who is her youngest son. A fine dinner was served and the day very pleasantly spent. Aunt Patsy Simpson, as she is familiarly known, was one of Oregon's earliest pioneers. Those who took part were: U. S. Laughary and family of Dallas, Frank Laughary and family of Luckiamute, Lela Laughary and wife, I. M. Simpson and Miss Wolverton.

GIVES SHORT TALK ON FARMING

Dr. Withcombe Talks Interestingly of Willamette Valley.

In one of his short talks on the farming demonstration train, which is making a tour of the western part of Oregon at present, Dr. James Withcombe, director of the Oregon Experiment Station, who has charge of the train, referred to the great Willamette valley in the following manner:

"The Willamette valley is the greatest valley in the world, considered agriculturally. It has a tillable area of 5,000,000 acres. Only 1,000,000 acres, or 20 per cent, is now being farmed. This valley will support a population of 2,000,000 people. There is not an acre but will produce products to the value of $10 a year. When properly cultivated, the annual return from the agricultural products of the valley will be not less than $200,000,000 a year.

"The climate and soil of the Willamette valley are practically identical with those of the Isle of Jersey. The latter supports a very dense population, and this is brought about by diversified farming and modern methods."—Salem Statesman.

Notice to Settle Up.

I hereby give notice that I am about to close my harness shop business in Independence. All parties owing me are requested to call on or before November 15, 1908, and settle their accounts either by cash or note.

DOINGS AT THE STATE NORMAL

Mrs. May Bowden-Babbitt, head of the department of music and drawing, who returned from a two weeks' stay in Portland on Saturday evening, has resumed her class work in the Normal. During Mrs. Babbitt's absence Miss Florence Bowden had charge of the course in drawing.

Miss Mona Nagle, '09, spent the latter part of the week at her home in Sheridan.

Miss Iola Laughlin has been obliged to return to her home at North Yamhill on account of illness. The many friends of Miss Laughlin trust that her illness may be only temporary and that she may return to graduate with her class in February.

Two new students recently enrolled are Miss Hazel Jewett of Roseburg and Mr. E. J. Hedrick of Drain. Both are experienced teachers and Monmouth welcomes them as members of her student body.

Miss Agnes Campbell, '08 of O. A. C., spent the week-end at her home in Monmouth. Miss Campbell has been elected one of the associate editors of the Junior Annual, '09, of O. A. C.

Prin. L. R. Traver of the Training School attended the annual institute of Clackamas county at Oregon City November 4, 5 and 6. Mr. Traver reports the institute as one of the most successful he ever attended. About 200 teachers were in attendance. Mr. Traver spends part of this week in Tillamook at the annual institute there.

The Normal Courier will be issued about the first of December. Staff meetings are being held and the first issue promises to be a "winner."

The first football game of the Normal season was played on the college campus on Saturday, Nov. 7, with a town team from Independence. Neither team was in the best trim, owing to lack of practice, but they managed to hold each other to a score of 0-0. The Normal does not maintain a regular team this year owing to its probable detractor from the Normal class work. There will probably be another game or two, however, the next one with Dallas.

The Delphian Society boasts the largest membership of the societies. The meetings are spirited and the members are striving for honors on the school debating team. The program for last Friday night follows:

Song—Society.
Hidden Biography—Ethel Eakin.
Violin Solo—Leta Wolverton.
Recitation—Dorothy Prescott.
Reading, "The Celebrity"—Esther Larson.
Funnigrams—Lillian Anderson.
Frog chorus—Frogs. (?)
Reading—Shirley Dorsey.
Solo—Susie Hoffman.
Song—Society.

The Normal Society entertained the Vespertines and Delphians "right royally" in the gym on last Saturday night. The evening was delightfully passed with the program and games. The program was:

Address of Welcome—D. C. Henry, president of Normals.
Remarks—P. M. Stroud.
Reading—Lester Lindsay.
Quartet—Messrs. Henry, McNeill, Ground and Arant.
Funnigrams—Francis Phelps.
Duet—Messrs. McNeill and Ground.
Address—Irwin W. Montague.
Ice cream was served, "two-and-a-half cones apiece!" Who will dare say the Normals do not know how to entertain? Long live the Normals!

CHARTER GIVES PRIVILEGE

think very much of one. With kind regards, we remain, yours sincerely,

SALEM BREWERY ASS'N.
F. G. Deckebach, Vice-President.

November 4, 1908.

Sections from the charters are quoted:

Section 26. Provided that the city council shall never deprive itself of the right to regulate and adjust such rates so that the same may be reasonable for the services rendered, at least once in every period of two years: To license, tax, regulate and restrain bar rooms and tipping houses, and all places where spirituous, vinous or malt liquors are sold. Provided (as usual).

Section 50. All former acts incorporating the city or town of Independence and all acts amendatory of such charter, and all acts inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed. February 21, 1903.

SELLING OUT AT COST

Entire stock consisting of Harness, Whips, Blankets, all kinds of strap work, all goods used in harness and saddle making, and Leather Goods must be closed out. I am positively going out of business, and will sell the stock at actual cost.

This is an opportunity for farmers to buy their horse goods at actual cost. It will not be their privilege to again have such a chance, perhaps, in a lifetime to buy at such low prices.

This sale will last only until the first of December. My stock of goods must be sold by that time as the shop will be closed on that date. Other business demanding my attention makes it impossible for me to continue the harness shop in Independence.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.
