May at her residence two miles north of the city. Quite a large number of the society were present. Some six or eight buggies and carriages were secured to take the members out to the farm. Persons passing the May ranch looked as if they thought there was either a wedding or a funeral, but it was only one of the many meetings of this wide-awake society. The Aid Society was never so harmonious and active as now. New members are constantly uniting. The latest additions are Mrs. Dr. Hewitt and Mrs. C. Irvine. The meeting at Mrs. May's was especially interesting, in fact the jolliest crowd of church workers that ever met in this "neck o' the woods." At noon the ladies adjourned for dinner, such a dinner as these ladies know how to prepare. Mrs. May is a generous and magnificent hostess. The unanimous verdict was, "It is good to be here," and the motion "That we have these meetings often" was enthusiastically received. After dinner the business session was called by the pastor. A call was received from a needy church in Nevada, after hearing which the society voted to send some of their work to aid this sister church in its necessity. The society expects to hold its annual chrysanthemum fair on November 28. They intend this to equal or surpass all preceding fairs of the society. POPULAR DALLAS COUPLE WEDS Miss Holman is Married to Edwin Jacobson at Dallas. Miss Meda Imogene Holman was married to Mr. Edwin Jacobson at their future home on the corner of Clay and Jefferson streets, Wednesday, November 11, at high noon, the Rev. M. P. Dixon of the Methodist church officiating. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk mull and duchess all-over lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations. The rooms were decorated for the occasion with bride's roses, carnations and potted plants. After the ceremony a fine wedding dinner was served. About thirty friends and relatives were present at the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson were the recipients of many beautiful presents. Both the bride and groom are well-known in this city. Mrs. Jacobson is the youngest daughter of Justice and Mrs. Hardy Holman and Mr. Jacobson is assistant agent at the S. P. depot and also owner of the Jacobson Transfer Company. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson left on the afternoon train for a visit in Portland and the Sound cities. They will be at home to their friends after November 20.—Dallas Observer. Men Past Sixty in Danger. More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney disorders, usually enlargement of prostate glands. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Remedy should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rockport, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old." D. G. Dove. NOTICE. Dated this 10th day of November, 1908. E. M. SMITH, County Clerk.
