In talking of Statement No. 1 in last week's Enterprise we might have been more explicit. It is true that Willis S. Dunnway was not chosen directly by Statement No. 1, but it is a fact that Statement No. 1—and all the other fancy wrinkles of the Oregon election system are so nearly related that they are practically one and the same. It is a twist that will puzzle the Oregon people for years to come before the state will ever be able to rid themselves of it and get down to good old simple methods again. It is possible that the good people of Oregon have not had quite enough of it yet. Let them have a few more initiative and referendum petitions similar to some of them that have come up for consideration at the June election. For instance, the two fish bill petitions. The people killed both contestants, destroying a great industry in the state. It came very near abolishing the University of Oregon, and it would had it not been for the vote from the city of Portland and the hard work of most of the country newspapers of the state. When the ballots are so full of petitions that they will have to be issued in eight or ten pages, jelling in all manner of nonsensical rubbish of legislation that will require a standing session of the legislature to correct or abolish it, then will the people begin to see the folly of the system and long for the old simple ways. But it is not going to be so easy to get out of it. It will require level heads to lead us out of the mess.

It does not require a great mind to be a grumbler or a knocker, says St. Johns Review. Any old fishwife, squabbling over the broken nets, the leaky boat, the light catch, with watery eyes and disheveled hair is a fair representative of the average knocker's mental capabilities. But it takes a man, a real man, to meet defeat cheerfully. To go down in a struggle for a purpose and then rise up manfully and cheerfully go on in the fight for the same or a brighter purpose. Which class are you in? It is up to all of us to keep a stiff upper lip and our powder dry. There are propositions before us that will need all the manliness of our nature to meet and meet successfully. If we meet them in this way we will come out conquerors over every difficulty, but if we whine and cringe and act the knocker's part, give every proposition the black side to ourselves and our fellows, we will not only make ourselves contemptible in the sight of others but we will prevent the success that is within the reach of all for the taking. The only thing for us to do is to stand together, shoulder to shoulder in every enterprise for the advancement of the city and our general good.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take a cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a quick cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to its normal condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Could Independence Do This?

White Salmon, Washington, the apple center of the North Bank road, holds the record for liberality in raising an advertising fund. The entire population of the village and valley of White Salmon does not exceed 600 people, and at a recent meeting they raised $2200, or almost $4 apiece.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They Are Independence People and What They Say is of Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange experiences go the rounds of the press: are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

P. H. Drexler, Main St., Independence, Oregon, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and am glad to acknowledge the benefit derived. For a long time I suffered from a weak back and an irregularity of the kidney secretions. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at P. M. Kirkland's drug store. They gave me relief at once. I continued and was relieved of every symptom of the complaint. I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable remedy for the kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 25-26.

Henry of Panama, Mo. The world has had thirty-eight years of proof that Dr. King's New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and colds, la grippe, asthma, hay fever, bronchitis, hemorrhage of the lungs, and the early stages of consumption. Its timely use always prevents the development of pneumonia. Sold under guarantee at all druggists, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Chance for Good Advertising.

From the exhibits in connection with the meeting of the Northwest Fruit Growers' Association and the Oregon State Horticultural Society a most effective and unusual advertisement of the fruits of the Pacific Northwest has been evolved. The twenty choicest boxes of prize-winning apples have been purchased by the Portland Commercial Club, and after display in the windows of Macy's famous store in New York City for a week, ten boxes will be sent to King Edward of England and the other ten to Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany.

Colds and Croup in Children.

"My little girl is subject to colds," says Mrs. Wm. H. Serig, No. 41, Fifth St., Wheeling, W. Va. "Last winter she had a severe spell and a terrible cough but I cured her with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without the aid of a doctor, and my little boy has been prevented many times from having the croup by the timely use of this syrup." This remedy is for sale by P. M. Kirkland.

The Very First One.

The visitors in the historical museum gazed curiously at a small feather pillow which nestled in a glass case.

"I don't see anything unusual about that pillow," remarked one of the visitors, turning to the guide.

"It's a very valuable pillow," replied the guide. "That is Washington's original headquarters."—Lippincott's.

What Would You Do?

In a case of a burn or scald what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one, will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.
