

GREAT REMOVAL SALE

We are compelled to move January 1, but prefer to sacrifice this great stock and put the money in the bank rather than damage it in moving to our new location. It is an honest attempt to close out the stock at cost and less and not simply an offering of a few broken lines of old style shoes. Look over these prices. The finest shoes made are included in this great removal sale.

FLOWER SHOW WAS SUCCESS

M. E. LADIES' AID SOCIETY GIVES GOOD ENTERTAINMENT.

After Expenses Are Paid Snug Sum of $75 Will Be Cleared, Which Will Apply for Their Church Work in Independence.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church of Independence held its Annual Chrysanthemum Fair in the opera house during the afternoon and evening of Saturday, November 28.

The fair this year eclipsed any of former years. A fine program was rendered, consisting of a number of selections by the independence orchestra, a duet by the Misses Dorothy Paddock and Ula Dickenson, a drill by eighteen girls called "Popcorn People," a male quartet rendered by Dr. Hewitt and Messrs. Drexler, Gillispie and Ferguson. A trio by Misses McDevitt of Dallas, Hodge of Independence and Craven of Mouth was enthusiastically encored. The "Komic Opra" was well rendered by Mesdames Paddock and Drexler and Messrs. Drexler and Gillispie. The program concluded with a parlor play, "Mistakes Will Happen," put on by Dr. Allin, Mr. Gillispie and Misses N. Damon and F. Burton. The selections rendered by the orchestra were exceptionally fine, the singing was pronounced as being of a high order, the duet and drill by the little folks were most excellent, while the "Komic Opra" and the parlor play were enjoyed immensely and brought forth rounds of applause.

There was a fine display of chrysanthemums. Prizes were awarded to Mesdames W. B. and S. B. Walker, C. H. Mattison, R. H. Knox and A. Nelson.

The stage and the booths were decorated with bunting and Oregon grape. The first booth, where the fancy needlework of the society was for sale, was presided over by Mesdames Knox and Ferguson; the Japanese booth by Mrs. Heath and Miss Church; and the ice cream booth was attended by Mesdames Smith and Ingram.

The society received nearly $100. After all expenses are paid the net proceeds will be about $75. The ladies of the society desire to thank all who in any way assisted in making the fair a success. Especial mention is due to the orchestra and the pianist, the ladies who kindly loaned the flowers and to those who took the time to so thoroughly train the little folks in their part of the program.

(This story with much other matter was crowded out of last week's issue of the Enterprise.—Ed. note.)
