MONMOUTH NORMAL FESTIVITIES

SOCIETY MEETINGS ARE LEADING EVENTS OF WEEK.

Tour of Normal Girls' and Boys' Basket Ball Team of the Past Week is interesting Event—Games Played at Silverton and Woodburn.

Prof. Fargo interested the students at assembly on Wednesday morning, Dec. 10, with a "talk" on "The Scientific Spirit."

The following members of the June class '09 appeared for senior rhetorical on Friday: Miss Mary Whitney, whose subject was "Benjamin Franklin;" Miss Netta Miller, who read on "Law and Order;" Miss Clara Tinnerstedt, with the subject, "The Future of Western Trade."

The first issue of "The Courier" has appeared. The cover design is pretty appropriate and the edition as a whole reflects much credit on the new editor, Miss Mabel Robinson, and an efficient staff of co-workers. For the first time "The Courier" has been printed by a local printer. That the work may be well done at home is a source of great satisfaction to the editors.

The freshmen boys are strictly up-to-date. See those new sweaters with the flaunting "12." The girls should not be behind in wearing their chosen emblem.

Miss Esther Spillman and Miss Lillian Anderson made a flying trip to Salem on Sunday. They report a delightful trip despite the storm.

Many students who live at a distance are to be excused on Saturday, Dec. 19, in order to reach their homes in good season for Christmas. The college and the training school, however, will hold session until noon of December 23.

Delphian Society.

The program of the Delphian Society on last Friday evening follows:

Song—Society.
Reading—Olea Shore.
Joshes—Agnes Clark.
Life of Our President — Lillian Gardner.
Reading—Eva Ruggles.
Charades—Committee.

Many of the members visited the session of the Normal Society in Room 6.

A short business meeting followed, after which the society adjourned. All especially enjoyed the brief account of the president's (Shirley Dorsey's) life. It was one of the most accurate and cleverly written biographies it has ever been our pleasure to hear.

Vespertine Society.

The Vespertines held a most interesting session December 11, the second under the regime of the newly installed officers. Mrs. Stroud acts her part as president with tact and ease and Miss Mary White is our efficient secretary. The society was delighted with the attendance of a new table; the secretary being especially jubilant when assured its presence would be permanent.

The program as planned was not entirely carried out, owing to the illness of three members.

Miss Williams and Miss Weston kindly substituted for a number with a recitation and a song respectively. Both were heartily applauded. "Current Events" by the members occasioned much merriment in addition to the profit. Many things from the new "Pay-as-you-enter" cars to the President's message and paper making was discussed. Many plans for the new year were made and committees were appointed. It was voted to send Christmas greetings to Prof. L. A. Robinson in New York, who leaves shortly in the interests of an educational committee for Europe. Prof. Robinson always took a great interest in the societies.

Normal Society.

The last meeting of the Normal Society was brief but spirited. After the regular business meeting the usual discussion of "Robert's Rules of Order" was entered into by the members one and all. Several important points were declared made clear. A large delegation of Delphians were admitted to listen to the short program. The visitors gracefully responded to requests for talks which were greatly enjoyed by both societies.

Trip of Basket Ball Teams.

Perhaps the event of greatest interest of the week was the tour of the girls' and boys' basket ball teams. Mr. Briggs chaperoned the party and Mr. Alvah Craven went as girls' coach and Mr. Milton Force as boys' coach. Following is the results of the games: Girls' games—Monmouth 11, Silverton 7; Monmouth 25, Woodburn 3. Boys' games—Monmouth 5, Silverton 42; Monmouth 16, Woodburn 27; Monmouth 16, Mt. Angel 41.

Boys—Edgar Sacre, captain, forward; Albert Sacre, forward; Erwin Springer, center; Ray Chute, guard; Cleu Work, guard; Lester Lindsey, manager, substitute.

The party left Monmouth at 10:30 Friday morning for Salem by team. Here dinner was had and Woodburn was reached at 3:30. After supper at the hotel the teams went on to Silverton and on arriving there were met by the basket ball team and escorted to the hotel. The game was called at 8:30, the girls playing first. After the games the Silverton team entertained at luncheon. At Woodburn the girls were the guests of the members of the girls' team there at their several homes. The boys came to Woodburn after playing Mt. Angel. The teams at Woodburn gave a dance after the contest at which the O. S. N. S. teams were guests of honor. The party left Woodburn on Sunday morning and arrived in Monmouth via Salem about four in the afternoon, the girls jubilant over their victories, the boys game in defeat.
