NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

LUCKIAMUTE

E. J. Steele butchered Thursday of last week and shipped some fine porkers to Portland Friday.
Glen Hiltbrand is working on the section at Parker.
Stock stood the storm well in this vicinity.
Quite a few of our hunters put in the snowy days hunting coons, but the writer failed to see any hides.
C. W. Stewart is again able to be around after a severe attack of rheumatism.
Joseph Lampfitt sent thirteen fine porkers to Portland last Tuesday that averaged nearly 200 pounds net.
Ms Daisy Kays and son returned home Monday after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Steele.
Our school did not close on account of cold weather and is progressing nicely under the able management of Miss Nellie V. Williams.

ITEMIZER ITEMS

Hon. H. V. Gates, owner of the Dallas waterworks system, has made an offer to that city to sell the plant for $40,000. The matter will be brought up at a regular meeting of

If you will take Foley's Orino Laxative until the bowels become regular you will not have to take purgatives constantly, as Foley's Orino Laxative positively cures chronic constipation and sluggish liver. Pleasant to take. P. M. Kirkland.

Sheriff Grant reported last week that there remained only about $574.38 in delinquent taxes, $260 of which was on personal property and $214.33 on real property. During the day the whole of the delinquency on real estate was taken up by C. W. Irvine of Independence. Besides Mr. Irvine there are about eleven other parties who have taken up property on which the taxes have become delinquent during the past year.

BUENA VISTA

George Kreutz of Springfield is in this city and will visit with relatives for a short time.

new butchershop. Mr. Black, of American Bottom, and Mr. J. Wells Wells of this city will be proprietors of the new enterprise. Success to you, boys.

Francis M. Donaldson, one of our enterprising merchants, has purchased the house and lot just across the street from the blacksmith shop and will erect a new store building there on in the near future.

ANTIOCH

Miss Bessie Sullivan of Monmouth visited Sunday at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Clark.

John Pitzer, who is working for Arthur Grooms at Cochran, Sundayed with his parents who reside in this neighborhood.

Mr. Mumma of Monmouth was out to Antioch Wednesday and drove back several cattle to the city.

Mrs. Herman Wonder and daughter, Minnie, spent Saturday in Monmouth visiting friends.

Several coons have been killed lately in this locality.

Richard Osborne, formerly of this place but now of Black Rock, visited friends in this neighborhood Wednesday.

Arthur Gordon and wife of Cochran spent two days of last week with Oscar Lehman and family.

We are delighted to see the rain once again, as we Oregonians don't like very much to be acquainted with cold and snowy weather.

Mrs. Kate Rogers, who has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Towns, took the north bound train to Portland Thursday. Her husband has employment in that city.

Allie Griffith, wife and daughter, Nettie, returned home Saturday from a three weeks visit in Benton county.

RED PRARIE

(These items from Red Prairie were received too late for last week's Enterprise.—Ed.)

Mrs. P. H. Bell has been on the sick list.

Mrs. George Colmer gave a very successful Christmas dinner. All report a very enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Tabor and little Ruth spent Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. Winco, of Portland.

The Van Sears farm was sold during the last few days to a Mr. Smith of Hillsboro.

Miss Ana Conner, who has been visiting friends in Brownsville, Albany and Cottage Grove, has returned to her home in this neighborhood.

Mr. Garber has sold his farm and has gone to see about buying a cigar store at Woodburn. They expect to move soon.

Air Hill bought the pasture of the Garber farm and Mr. Dugan, a merchant of Clatskanie, the rest of the farm. Mr. Dugan expects to move on to the place as soon as he can close out his business at Clatskanie.

Miss Lizzie Thurston has been visiting friends in Portland.

Peter Syron has had a severe case of tonsillitis but is recovering.

Grandma Bell is among us again. She has been visiting her son, John Bell of Willamina.

Ressie Dykstra, who is attending the Pacific University, spent the holidays with his brother, Ed Dykstra.

Clifton Hill is visiting his mother and brother.

Grandma Dean gave a New Year's dinner which was greatly enjoyed by all who were present.

Miss Cora Gay spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gay of Crowley.

We have had nearly 18 inches of snow. This morning, January 12, it was near 4 below zero.

GREENWOOD

Burton Arant has resigned his position as teacher of the Greenwood school.

Clay Gordon Huntley, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Huntley, is convalescing slowly under the care of a Salem physician.

Miss Eva Martin of Corning, Cal., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Manley Martin.

Miss Miller of Dallas has been employed to take Mr. Arant's place as teacher of the Greenwood school.

Miss Gertrude Harrison, a trained nurse of the Salem hospital, is waiting on Mrs. J. T. Huntley and little son, Gordon.

Asa Taylor, the hustling liveryman of Independence, was in these parts the first of the week.

Charles and Wesley Brooks can relate some interesting coon stories since the recent snow storm.

Mr. Morris has sold his farm of 56 acres to T. B. Kay of Salem. Mr. Kay expects to put his new farm to English walnuts.

The young ladies of Greenwood have organized a riding club. Following are the officers: Jennie Young, president; Iva Martin, vice president and Myrtle Brown, secretary. The club expects to give some enjoyable riding parties during the coming season.

HARMONY

(These items from Harmony were received too late for last week's Enterprise.—Editor.

Harmony hill was a very popular place with the boys and girls during the last week.

School was closed last week and during the storm.

Everyone enjoyed the sleighing while it lasted. They seemed to realize that they might not have another such chance in Oregon soon.

A number of our young people spent a very pleasant evening at the home of J. B. Hayes Tuesday evening.

MONMOUTH

H. M. Guthrie made a brief visit with his parents and sisters in Monmouth last week while en route to Seattle where he is taking a special course of study in forestry and mineral work.

C. C. Lowe and wife went to Seattle last Friday after having enjoyed a pleasant visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Remington.

Clarence Fream and wife of Falls City spent a pleasant time with the folks at home last week.

Business has begun to revive in Monmouth.

Not much sickness in town, considering the recent severe cold weather.

HIGHLAND

Frank Valliere finished hauling the lumber for his new barn last Friday. Henry and Oren McElmurry were Independence visitors last Thursday.

A. Hamann and C. E. Nash were Monmouth and Independence visitors last Saturday.

Among the visitors to Independence last Saturday were "Bud" Alexander, Lew Stapleton and son, Norval, Harvey Valliere, Henry McElmurry, Joe Loundree and family.

Three of S. H. McElmurry's goats met with a sad accident on last Monday, while placidly feeding around the bottom of a strawstack and ruminating, probably, upon the hardships which they had endured during the late snowstorm. They were suddenly sent to goat heaven by the stack toppling over onto them and striking the three dead with a pole which had been used to hold the straw in place.

The green verdure of the hillsides and meadows is certainly a pleasant sight to the occupants of the hen roosts and stables of this neighborhood, after the snow of the last two weeks.

BUENA VISTA

Jim and Hugh Kiger are new entries on the Buena Vista school roster this week.

Our school was closed during the recent snow storm.

The primary teacher, Miss Belshe, has a severe attack of la grippe and is unable to be at her post of duty. The vacancy is being ably filled by Miss O'Connell of Lincoln, Nebraska. Mrs. Belshe of Monmouth is here attending at the sick bed of her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter of Idaho are here visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hall of this place.

J. D. Winn has moved into the house of Mr. Neal, having sold his home to Mr. Donaldson.

Mr. Black will move to town in a few days so his children will be handy to school.

J. M. Prather was in Portland last week, having been called there on account of sickness.

The river is quite high now and has caused some to move off from the bottom lands to higher grounds into Buena Vista.

EAST DALLAS

The snow is thawing very fast, in consequence there is much water on the low lands.

There are no signs of injury to the grain fields apparent at this time and it is believed that the freeze did not affect growing grain.

J. P. Neufeldt of Richmond, Texas, and Miss Helena Rempel of Rickreall were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, G. F. Rempel, Thursday, the 7th inst.

All outdoor work has been stopped for the present on account of the storm.

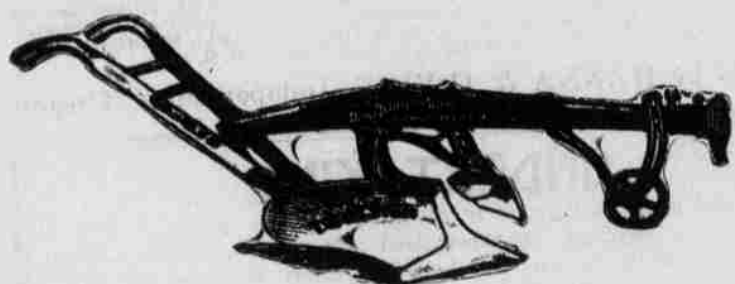

Misses Sara and Elenora Wenger of Silverton, Marion county, visited in this neighborhood last week.

The stork vis'ed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Rempel and left a 7½ pound daughter on the 8th inst.

Polk County's Tax Levy.

The tax levy of Polk county is 15.6 mills this year, 4.1 mills higher than the levy of last year but, considering the increased expenses for much needed road improvement during the past year, the additional expense for still more of the same kind of progressive work during the year to come, and the fact that the assessed valuation of the property in Polk county during 1908 was about $429,000 less than that of 1907, the new levy does not seem exorbitant, says the Itemizer. The levy is divided as follows: state 3.9 mills; county, 5.9 mills; schools 2.8 mills; roads 3 mills.
