OREGON TOWNS TO THE FRONT

John T. Burns, Secretary-Treasurer of the Dry Farming Congress, which will hold its fourth session in Billings Montana, is making a tour of Oregon and delivering an address today to the business men of Portland at the Commercial Club.

Milton and Freewater are going some in an advertising way. They have raised a total sum of $2550 for this purpose, Milton $1680 and Freewater $900. When they started out they hoped to be able to raise $1500.

Salem built 338 houses in 1908. The Executive Committee of the Albany Commercial Club have determined to continue their advertising and when one visits that city, which is now active and growing in the daytime and illuminated at night with hundreds of incandescent lights, it is easy to realize that advertising is a good investment.

Ashland is showing magnificent public spirit and is raising a vast sum of money for progressive purposes during the present month.

Dallas and Independence have determined to put old Polk county in the publicity parade.

The Western Hotel reporter will issue a special Oregon Edition April 30th.

C. T. Colt, late of LaGrande, is active as advertising director of the Roseburg Commercial Club.

Pendleton is circulating one of the most effective leaflets yet printed, in which special attention is given to the resources of the state in general.

Ione held a very successful "Get Busy" gathering Saturday.

Ontario is enthusiastic over the prospect of early activity in the Malheur Irrigation Project while LaGrande is greatly encouraged over an enterprise of a similar nature.

"500,000 in 1912" is popular in Portland.
