

HOW TO SPEND RECESS HOURS

YOUNG POLK COUNTY TEACHER INVITES COMMENTS

Would Join the Children on the Play Grounds Encouraging into Manly Sports Teaching Them the Broad Jump and to Sprint.

HIGHLAND March, 30—(To the Editor.)

Teachers of Polk County:

What are you doing these fine spring days for your boys and girls to make their recesses and noons pass more pleasantly for them? I will offer you a few suggestions on a little scheme I am trying. If you can make room on the play grounds put up a jumping rack for both standing and running high jump and set a few hurdles around in the yard for the boys to stretch their legs over, also lay off a small circular race track of perhaps one-fifteenth or one sixteenth of a mile. Who knows but what we might have a world beater in running or jumping springing up in our midst. If so give the boy or girl a chance and let them find their forte early. Encourage the girls as well as the boys in all outdoor clean, healthful exercise and manly sports. You will find it pays, not only in the better work they do after returning to their studies, but also in their health and dispositions. Don't be a stool pigeon and set in the school room and draw your salary but get out with your boys and girls, show them how to perform the work, offer good, healthful suggestions, get closer to your boys and girls. If any other teacher has any good plans or methods let us hear from them through the Enterprise. We are all in this work, therefore, let us give the coming men and women of America the best we have.

Happenings at Salem

Dr. J. N. Smith, of Salem has been appointed by the governor as visiting physician at the penitentiary at a salary of $900 a year.

Surveyors are at work setting grade stakes for the spur to be built from the penitentiary to the asylum, a distance of about one mile. The legislature at its last regular session appropriated $2500 for this work. The track will be built by convicts and inmates of the asylum and will be completed in about a month. It will save the state over $3000 a year on the transportation of wood alone.

The Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company has served notice on Attorney-General Crawford that it will appeal from the decision of the supreme court of Oregon to the supreme court of the United States in the action brought by the state of Oregon to collect money under the gross tax law. The company will base its appeal on the contention that initiative and referendum law and primary system under which the gross earnings tax was enacted is in contravention of section 4, article 4 of the constitution of the United States.

One of the largest damage suits started in Marion county circuit court in some time has been filed by Mrs. Sallie Graham, who began a damage suit for $10,000 against the city of Woodburn for breaking a leg by stepping into a hole in a sidewalk at Woodburn.

Salem—P. H. D'Arcy, president of the Samuel L. Simpson Memorial Association, is planning to establish branches of the association throughout the state for the purpose of furthering the project of erecting a splendid memorial monument at Salem to the memory of Simpson, who was a pioneer Oregon poet and a graduate of the Willamette University.

The Salem Board of Trade's annual banquet last Friday night was an extraordinary success. Redoubled energy will be put behind their advertising campaign, which has proven so effective during the past year.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is free from all opiates and it cures the cold by gently moving the bowels. It is especially recommended for children, as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. We sell and recommend it. Sold by all druggists.

Increases Normal School Fund

President E. D. Reessler, of the Monmouth normal school was in Salem Friday, in the interests of that cherished institution. A noteworthy incident of his visit was the depositing of $1500 with the state treasurer for the maintenance of the school whose contracts with teachers and pupils are to be honored, legislatures and knockers to the contrary notwithstanding. President Reessler did not know how the other normals are getting along in their struggle for existence, but as to Monmouth he said no little matter like cutting off their appropriation would be allowed to interfere with the orderly progress of the school—Salem Statesman.

OREGON, DEAR OREGON

(Air - "Heidelberg")

Better than riches or worldly wealth, Is life in a clime that's royal, Teeming with happiness, hope and health.

And warmed by a sun benign; Sweeter than pelf that is won by stealth.

Is building with citizens loyal; So come, let us clink, but first let us drink

One toast with a brimming stein.

Here's to the state that knows no dearth,

Here's to the hopes that rise;

Here's to her sons, the best on earth,

Here's to her smiling skies;

Here's to her past so glorious,

Here's to her future great,

Here's to her ever victorious,

Here's to our own dear state.

Oh, Oregon, dear Oregon,

The state we love so well,

Where summer snows and beautiful rose

Deck mountain, hill and dell;

Where shimmering sheen and ever-green

Blend into heav'n above;

The thought of you, so old, so new,

E'er fills our heart with love;

The thought of you, so staunch, so true,

E'er fills our heart with love.

What Papers Do You Read?

H. B. Geer tells of a farmer who once said: "I don't believe in your book learning, study and all that; I'd rather learn by experience." He did. That man a couple of years later lost out as a farmer and moved to town, where he made a very poor living working by the day and doubtless working for men who studied and read and thought about their business, and applied in it, as far as practicable, that which they had learned from books, periodicals and the experience of others given therein. It is the men who read; the men who study; the thoughtful men who support the farm journals. They are the men who read books and papers on agriculture, fruit growing, poultry culture and bee-keeping. They are the men who stand in the front rank; the leaders in their respective communities. These men have found that it pays to read and study on any subject in which they are interested and apply their knowledge in their everyday work.

is published for this class of farmers and stock raisers. Every week it contains articles by men who KNOW. Practical experience is what counts and you get it from others through the Pacific Homestead, published at Salem, Oregon, each Thursday. Subscription price $1 per year, sample copy free.
