NEWS FROM EVERYWHERE

HIGHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker, the purchasers of the S. H. McMurry place made a business trip to Independence Thursday, returning with a large load of household furniture.

The days of the old time carpet rag and sewing bees must certainly be coming in vogue once more as Mrs. Robert Simon sent out invitations last week for the ladies of Highland to meet at her pleasant home on Thursday where a most enjoyable as well as busy day was spent in the sewing of fourteen pounds of carpet rags. A most delicious dinner was served at noon. Mrs. Simon made a good selection of the day not alone on account of the fine weather but because of it being on her birthday. The following are the names of these present: Mesdames A. E. Shafer, A. Hamann, and daughter Bertha Osborne, Dave Haley, Loundree, Chas. Smith, Alexander and Nelson.

Joe Loundree on Friday drove to Independence to meet Mrs. Marie Ovaterneer and husband of Portland who came up to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Shafer of this place.

Miss Bertha Hamann is still improving.

Jim Russell was transacting business in Independence Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Shafer and son Emerson Mrs. F. W. Smith, Miss Ella Chase, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Winfred Wilson attended the social institution given at Buena Vista last Saturday. They had a most enjoyable time and did full justice to the excellent luncheon served at noon.

If you are not already a subscriber to the Independence Enterprise send in your subscription today. I assure you it will be appreciated by the management and at the same time you will be helping yourself as well for there is nothing under the shining sun that will ever compare with a good newspaper in the upbuilding of a community, for the simple reason that it advertises our country resources, it paints the great possibilities that are lying dormant at our very doors, it interests men who have capital for investment. If space would permit I might mention a hundred other things wherein a subscriber derives a direct benefit from the country newspaper. Think the matter over and send in your subscription today.

Mr. F. G. Fritts, Oneonta, N. Y., writes: "My little girl was greatly benefitted by taking Foley's Orino Laxative, and I think it is the best remedy for constipation and liver trouble." Foley's Orino Laxative is best for women and children, as it is mild, pleasant and effective, and is a splendid spring medicine, as it cleanses the system and clears the complexion. For sale by P. M.
