Velma and Ruby Tipton of Hillsboro are guests this week of Charlotte and Dorothy Hicks.

Charles Irvine and wife returned Saturday evening from a three weeks outing at the coast.

Mrs. Riley Craven and Mrs. E. V. Dalton of Dallas visited with friends in this city last Saturday.

County School Superintendent H. C. Seymour was in the city Wednesday. He came over on official business.

Martin Krebs, one of the prosperous hop growers of this section, was doing business in town this week.

Miss Clara Purvine, the accomplished young milliner of this city was a Salem visitor last Saturday.

J. Kirkland of Donopah, Missouri, was among the strangers in town this week looking over the country.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Davidson were among those attending the cherry fair last Saturday at Salem from this city.

Roy DeArmond, Grover Mattison and Guy Walker left last Friday morning on a two-weeks' fishing trip.

Miss Ella Robinson returned to McMinnville Sunday after a visit of several days with her parents of this city.

Miss Ruby Earhart returned from Black Rock Monday where she had been for some time visiting with relatives.

R. C. Sheppard of Polk county took the second prize at the Salem cherry fair, with an excellent individual exhibit.

Chas. E. Hicks, accompanied by his daughters, Charlotte and Dorothy, visited over Sunday with relatives at Hillsboro.

Archie W. Earl and Minnie Summers were the only Polk county people given permission last week by law to wed.

Mrs. W. F. Bundy returned home Sunday from a few days' visit with her son, C. T. Okley, who resides on her farm in Linn county.

J. W. Hobbs of Eugene, international revenue inspector of Oregon, spent a day in the city this week on business connected with his office.

W. S. Barber and wife of Springfield, Illinois, were in the city this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Allin. Mrs. Barber is an aunt of Mrs. Allin.

The sawmill was put in operation Monday after being shut down for four days on account of a pump being broken. It is expected that the mill will run steadily from this on.

D. H. McCarty, one of the heavy hop growers east of town, on the opposite side of the river, was among the people who took in the Salem cherry fair.

The regular monthly meeting of the free library association will be held in the rooms of the free library on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All interested in the free library are welcome.

Sam Cox returned Sunday morning from a two weeks' visit at Portland and the cherry fair. He don't say much but from his looks one would suppose that he had had something of a time.

W. H. McClain and J. R. Jones of Prineville, Oregon, spent a day or two looking over this section of the country. They have nothing but praise to say regarding what they have seen.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hays were among the Salem visitors last Saturday. They took in the cherry fair.

P. H. Drexler is building a bungalow at Otter Rock on the coast near Newport.

Hugh Evans, who until recently has been night clerk at the Hotel Independence, has resigned his position to accept a situation with the Southern Pacific in the freight office at Dallas.

George H. Pigler and wife of Sellwood are spending their summer vacation with Henry Cauthorn, who has a farm about three miles east of this city. Mr. Cauthorn is a brother-in-law of Mr. Pigler.

Frank Davis, a cousin of the ever popular proprietor of the Independence hotel, has accepted a position in the hotel as clerk. Mr. Davis, who has been living in the vicinity of Eugene, is an old hotel man.

J. D. Sigel, one of the enterprising citizens of McCoy, this county, was doing business in this city Wednesday. He speaks in flattering terms regarding the crop prospects in his section of the country.

Mrs. W. F. Bundy, who has been visiting friends in the vicinity of Waterloo, Linn county, returned home this week. She reports that Mrs. Mary Hagan, who has been suffering for sometime from consumption, is no better.

Forest Grove was represented in the city by E. E. Williams, one of its enterprising citizens. While he speaks in the highest terms of the possibilities of Polk county he is loyal to his section and thinks it has a trifle the best of ours.

George Brown is in town and it is intimated that George has a bug up his sleeve in the shape of a cold deck which he is going to spring on Jesse Whitaker who recently handed him a bunch in a foot race in which both were principals.

The enterprising firm of Hanna Bros. are treating the exterior of their place of business to a coat of paint which adds greatly to the appearance of the place. They are also having a large sign painted on the south side of the building.

Long is not short on good steaks, having purchased the bunch of steers belonging to Mr. Scott, who resides just across the river east of town. There is nothing nicer or juicier than a steak cut from a fat steer, and Long has them.

C. G. Beach, a young journalist of Salem, was in Independence last Tuesday, having come over on the boat of that day. He returned home Wednesday after looking over the Enterprise field. At present he is operating the Court Grill at Salem.

Postmaster M. Merwin and wife left this week for Seattle to attend the A. Y. P. exposition now being held in that city. After spending a week or so there they expect to return home and go to the coast and spend the remainder of the summer vacation of the postmaster.

The motto of the Independence Steam Laundry is the best work to be had. Anyone having laundry work done there will find it equal to or better than that done by outside concerns. This he guarantees. Give it a trial and be convinced. The price is right.

Dr. Duganne, Asa Robinson, Rube Dickinson, S. E. Irvine and Harold Fitchard, who made the trip overland to Marshfield in an automobile, where they went to attend the races, July 1, 2, and 3, returned home last Friday evening, coming via Portland. They shipped to Portland on account of the heavy rain in that vicinity which made the roads impassable. They report having had a nice trip, and next week the Enterprise will furnish its readers a detailed story of their trip.

For sale or trade—High-class parlor organ in good condition. Enquire at Mrs. Neeley's in North Independence. Will trade for young stock of any kind.

The first and only air ship ever constructed in Independence is now on exhibition in the window of R. M. Wade & Co. It is of an entirely new design. Manager Craven is busy on a hot air problem and as soon as he solves it he expects to make a trial trip. If things work satisfactorily excursions will be run daily between this city and Seattle for the accommodation of fair visitors. Look for his announcement next week.
