Citizens of this city going to the seaside or mountains for their summer vacation should have the Enterprise sent to their temporary address, and keep posted on what is going on. If you are already a subscriber we will send the paper to your temporary address. The change will cause only a little extra work and this we will gladly do in order to accommodate our readers and keep them informed on all the news events at home.

Resumed Operations.

The flour mill of the Independence Milling and Warehouse Company resumed operations last Monday after being shut down for repairs. While shut down the machinery was given a thorough overhauling, an additional warehouse added to the building 60x40 feet, the mill repainted, and everything now is in first-class shape. The company has several thousand bushels of old grain on hand which will keep them busy until this year's crop is ready to use.
