Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy Never Known to Fail

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872, and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years, and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols of Oakland, Ind. Ter. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

The Capital Business College.
The advertisement of the Capital Business College of Salem, Oregon, appears in this issue of the Enterprise. This school was established in 1889 with some four or five pupils in attendance. It has grown steadily under the direction of W. I. Staley, who has been at its head ever since its establishment, excepting the first year, until now it has an enrollment of 200 to 250 pupils each year. Those interested in a usable education should send for a catalogue of this school. Its graduates are said to be much sought by business men, on account of their business training.

What is Best for Indigestion?
Mr. A. Robinson of Drumquin, Ontario, has been troubled for years with indigestion and recommends Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets as "the best medicine I ever used." If troubled with indigestion or constipation give them a trial. They are certain to prove beneficial. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. Price 25 cents. Samples free at P. M. Kirkland's.

E. M. Young of Independence was in town Sunday on his way home from Belknap Springs where he and his son have been recuperating for several weeks. Mr. Young is a hop dealer and operates several yards himself. Before going into camp he contracted 85,000 pounds at 20 cents, and is jubilant over the fact that hops reached 23 cents, and says he would not be surprised to see them go to 30 cents. He states that the hop crop is light this year, but of good quality. He estimated the Oregon output at 65,000 bales.—Eugene Guard.

Cholera Infantum Cured
"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely," writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. "I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back to Elder Bros. & Carter's store and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and opened up a box of it and gave it to her. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by P. M. Kirkland.
