

Special Showing of Ladies' Suits at from $16.50 to $25

Better grades at from $30 to $50

What to Wear for Fall

Our line of Ladies' and Misses' Tailored Suits and Coats for Fall are now ready for inspection. We ask the ladies of Independence and vicinity to give us a call. We guarantee that you can save from $5 to $10 on your Fall Suit by buying from us. We have expert fitters who understand their business and will fit you RIGHT. We handle the "LA VOGUE" garments, one of the best known lines on the market.

150 Suits

just in by express. All the leading styles.

Newest weaves and many new colorings.

Ladies' Suits in sizes from 31 to 45 bust measure.

Each Garment

is individually tailored, fitted and inspected—is practically made especially for the wearer, and looks it.

All fabrics used are products of the best mills.

Faultless workmanship; shields in all suits; linings piped and protected at neck under collar. Many other details that will insure you wear and enduring shapeliness.

Look for us in the WILSON BUILDING, on MAIN STREET. This is the only exclusive Suit and Millinery House in Dallas. You will find Suits and Hats to match right in the same establishment, and everything right-up-to-the-minute in style and good taste. WITH A PURCHASE OF $10.00 AND OVER, WE WILL PAY YOUR RAILROAD FARE FROM MONMOUTH, INDEPENDENCE AND FALLS CITY AND BACK.

DALLAS SUIT and CLOAK CO.

DALLAS, OREGON

PERSONAL JOTTINGS

The town was full of hop pickers last Sunday.

E. A. Stewart of Newberg is visiting with friends in this city.

Mrs. L. Rice, who has been quite sick, is reported much improved.

J. M. Davis of Corvallis came down Wednesday to look over the hop yards.

Mrs. Fred Elliott of Marshfield is in Independence visiting with friends this week.

Mrs. G. A. Wilcox left this week for a month's stay at Long Beach, Washington.

Mrs. Wallace has put up a new awning in front of her place of business which gives it a dignified appearance.

Some of the farmers are complaining about having their chickens stolen since the hop pickers have arrived.

Collins Bros. have commenced to pick their apple crop which is said to be of an excellent quality this season.

Miss Petri Percival, who has been visiting with friends in Portland for sometime, returned home Tuesday evening.

Since a majority of the citizens have returned from their summer outings the weather has warmed up considerably.

Always patronize home industry and you will be happy and make those whom you patronize happy likewise.

R. B. Linville, a resident of Newberg, dropped in this week to look over the hop yards of this section, and will remain until after picking is over.

Geo. Conkey made a hurried trip to Portland Wednesday, leaving on the early morning launch for Salem from where he went by electric to Portland returning by the way of Dallas in the evening.

H. H. Evans, who recently resigned his position as clerk at the Independence Hotel to accept a situation in the freight depot of the Southern Pacific railroad at Dallas, returned this week and will hereafter be found at his old place in the hotel.

Geneva Wilcox has returned from a month's stay at Long Beach.

R. M. Pipin of Toledo, Oregon, is a visitor in the city this week.

Mrs. Blanche Wade of Sheridan arrived in this city Tuesday on a visit with friends.

T. Barnett, who resides at Albany, is in the city with a view of sizing up the town.

B. L. Crothers of Jefferson was doing business with Independence merchants this week.

Dick Thurston, who owns a farm in the vicinity of Airle, was in the city Tuesday of this week.

Quite a number of home seekers were in the city this week looking around for suitable locations.

Roy McFadden of Portland came in Wednesday morning on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Sherman Hays.

G. Hemmenway, a resident of Eugene, Oregon, came down this week and will remain until after hop picking is over.

Mr. Rice has moved into the rear of his place of business, having recently sold his residence on Monmouth street.

King Tetherow, who has been visiting in the city for the past few weeks, left for his home in Spokane Monday morning.

Lost—A ladies gold watch, between Krebs' hop yard and Independence last Sunday. A suitable reward will be paid for its return to this office. 15-16

L. E. Stapleton, who has a farm about three miles south of town, is able to be around again after having been laid up for several weeks with a bad hand caused by a cut and blood poison setting in.

Dr. W. R. Allin left this week for the Blue River country where he will spend about a month hunting and fishing. During the doctor's absence Mrs. Allin will visit with her parents and friends in Portland.

Opal McDevitt, a sister of Mrs. Geo. Conkey, arrived in the city Tuesday evening of this week for an extended visit. She came here from Southern California where she had been on account of her health. Her many friends will be pleased to learn that her health has been greatly benefited.

E. A. Kyle and Chas. Kruger of Albany were in the city Tuesday.

The dances at Krebs' hop yard are becoming popular with those who delight in tripping the light fantastic.

A. Anderson of Astoria, Oregon, arrived in the city Tuesday of this week and will spend sometime here.

J. S. Cooper made a business trip to Corvallis Tuesday of this week. He went up to look after his hop interest in that section.

The old-timers say that there are more pickers this season than for many years past and that no one will be short of pickers this season.

A. M. Sturdivant, a resident of our neighboring flourishing town of Sheridan is spending the week among the hop yards of this section.

For sale or trade—Gentle pony, broke to drive single or double. Will trade for young stock of any kind. Enquire of F. O. Fredrickson, 4 miles south of Independence. 17

Mrs. Hart, who runs the restaurant on C street was robbed of $75 last Tuesday night. The money was in a pocketbook which she carried in a belt about her waist. There is no clew to the robbery as yet.

E. M. Young was the first hop grower in the district to lay by his 1909 crop. He has about twenty acres and he says that it fell short about 11,000 pounds of what it was last year on the same piece of land.

We will have on display a new and complete line of Fall Millinery, at the C Street Millinery Store. The first opening being Sept. 10 and 11. All invited to attend. A first-class trimmer will be in charge.

Dr. Lowe, the well-known oculo-optician, will be at the Independence Hotel next Wednesday, September 15, 1909. He does not go from house to house. Dozens of Polk county references. Nineteen years experience.

A. A. McNary of Monmouth, who has a homestead up in the Siletz reservation, about thirty miles from Falls City, came out this week for supplies, via Butler, a town in the Grand Round country, as there is a pack train running from that place. Mr. McNary will take in enough provisions to last him about seven months and when he returns to his homestead he will not come out again until next spring.

Business in all lines is exceedingly good just at this time and as a consequence everyone wears a smile and has a pleasant look for everyone.

The hop buyers who have contracts in this section are keeping a close watch on the gathering of the crop and the condition of the hops that are being picked.

Mrs. J. E. Stansberry of Pendleton and her sister, Miss Vina Reiden, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stansberry, and incidentally taking their outing in the hop yards of this vicinity.

Maynard Thompson, a farmer of Davenport, Washington, came in Monday and is looking over this section of Polk county with a view of investing.

John Stark of Eugene arrived in town Tuesday of this week on a visit to his old home. His father at one time was proprietor of the Independence Hotel, and he has many friends here who are well pleased to see him.

Dr. Lowe's superior glasses furnish all that the eyes need except water. Just how they relieve the nervous system and strengthen the eyes takes longer to expound than experience. Consult him September 15. Nineteen years' experience.

L. H. McDaniel, a brother-in-law of G. A. Wilcox, agent of the Southern Pacific Co. at this place, arrived in the city this week on a visit. He has been living in Eastern Oregon for sometime past and reports the crops in that section good this season.

O. F. Dickson, wife and baby arrived in the city this week from Chelan, Washington, and will spend some time in the city visiting his father-in-law, J. R. Cooper. Mr. Dickson is engaged in the wholesale and retail meat business in Chelan where he has been a resident for a long time, having gone there when it was just commencing to settle up, being put up.

M. O. Potter and E. H. Grasty of Portland arrived in the city Wednesday morning from Dallas. Mr. Potter was a resident of Independence at one time and has many friends here. Messrs. Potter and Grasty are financing the Olds, Wortman & King building in Portland and the object of their visit here is to try and interest some of our capitalists in the enterprise with a view of placing some of the building bonds on the market.

Fair Week Specials

Towels, stamped to embroider. . . 79c

The Famous Needlecraft Cherry Pillow 50c

The latest Waists are those embroidered on French Eton Crepe, which require no starching or ironing. Full waist length, stamped to embroider or laid $1.25

REMEMBER, we are selling the balance of our Ready Made Shirt Waists and Tub Suits at One-Half to One-Third Off.

The Needlecraft Shop

Mrs. S. C. Wall
270 N. Com'l. St., Salem, Oregon

HAUSER BROS. SALEM, Props. of Salem Gun Store OREGON

We now have on display a very fine and complete line of Base Ball Goods, Lawn Tennis Supplies and also Fine Fishing Tackle

Send for Catalogue of Base Ball Uniforms

Our big campaign of advertising is bearing fruit, land-seekers coming in every day. We have sold several farms and want more good farms to sell. If you want immediate sale list your farms with us and it will not be long before we will have a buyer to look at it.—Chas. E. Hicks Real Estate Co.

W. W. Percival returned home Sunday from Roseburg where he went to attend the race meeting held there last week. He reports that every race was filled and that the meet was a success. The majority of the program races were running events which in a great measure accounts for the success of the meeting. All the purses were paid in full and the association had a neat balance left over with which they will improve the track and grounds for next season's races.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Wm. D. Galt

Christopher Burch, of Independence, who recently sold his farm on the Sheridan road near this city, sold his property in Independence and has purchased the new residence property of Saylor Bros., on College Side, where he and his wife will reside in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Burch are very nice people and we are very much pleased to have them back to our city again.—News-Reporter.