Dr. Dinamore was called to Dallas last Sunday afternoon to conduct the funeral services of the nine-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hayer.

Miss Hyde, a school teacher from Newberg, spent Wednesday in Independence visiting friends. She left Thursday for Pee Dee where she goes to take charge of the school at that place.

Willamette Presbytery will meet on Monday evening, continuing the session until Tuesday. On Wednesday the Synod of Oregon will meet in Newberg with sessions on Thursday and Friday.

George Richardson, an old resident of this city, died yesterday morning at his home on Monmouth street, after a lingering illness. At the time of going to press no funeral arrangements had been made.

Miss Hattie Mix wishes to announce that there will be on display at her shop, Friday and Saturday, October 8 and 9, a full line of ladies' and misses' tailored suits and long coats in all styles and colors. Call and inspect them.

The auditorium skating rink was opened to the public last week by the Oviatt Bros., the new proprietors. The place has been overhauled and put in first class shape. They have also put in a $1450 band organ, it being one of the finest in the valley. If you want to spend a delightful evening, drop in at the new rink.

Roy D. and E. D. Cass of Oswego, who have been in the city for the past few days looking over this section with a view of investing in real estate, closed a deal Wednesday for 120 acres of the Burrows place which joins the Krebs top yard about five miles south of town. The consideration has not yet been made public.

G. W. McGowan, a farmer residing about four and a half miles southeast of Independence, died at 8:00 o'clock last Tuesday evening, after a lingering illness. The funeral was held from the family residence yesterday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock and interment was made in Oddfellows' cemetery. A more complete account of Mr. McGowan's demise will be given next week.

C. G. Adams, the buyer for Adams Bros., wholesale butchers, Portland, was in the city Wednesday interviewing our stockmen relative to buying their stock. Adams Bros. operate independent of the union stock combine, and pay Portland prices f. o. b. at the place of delivery. This makes it quite an object to the farmers and stockraisers, as they save the freight on their stock from the point of shipment to Portland.

Mrs. Marshal Merwin entertained the Five Hundred club Wednesday afternoon. The rooms of the Merwin home were tastefully decorated with ferns, sweet peas and roses and presented a very pleasing appearance. Dainty refreshments were served. The first prize was won by Mrs. P. M. Kirkland. Mrs. J. S. Cooper, finding the lucky penny in the cake, received a prize also.

Regular services at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 o'clock and morning worship with sermon at 11. Subject of the morning discourse will be "The New Birth, What?" In the evening at 7:30 Dr. Dinamore will begin the series of sermon lectures, or character sketches of men and women of the Bible. The character study for Sunday evening will be "Eve, The First Mother." All are cordially invited to all these services.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Old Wheat Flour

Everyone knows that old wheat flour is superior to flour made from new wheat. Remember that all our brands of flour are made from old wheat, we having reserved enough to last us until the first of the year. Be sure and ask your grocer for our brands of flour made from old wheat and take no other.—Oregon Milling and Warehouse Co. 1817
