

LOCAL NOTES

Frank Kerslake of Dallas spent Sunday in this city. A well equipped stock of sick room necessities. Williams Drug Co.

Your credit is good for an Edison phonograph at Craven & Moore's. 18t

R. D. Cooper was doing business in Dallas the latter part of last week.

The ladies aid of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Dr. Hewitt yesterday afternoon.

For Sale—Cheat and vetch seed, also fresh milk cows. Apply to Homer Hill. 20-23

The South Bend Steel Range exhibit now on at Hanna Bros. store. Do not miss it.

Fresh oysters, both Eastern and Olympia, received daily at the Gem Restaurant. 19t

Jesse Whiteaker has returned from Portland where he spent several days transacting business.

C. M. Hall, of near Salem, Oregon, is a proud owner of a new Monarch range, bought of R. M. Wade & Co.

Mrs. A. W. Whitney now has in her home a Monarch range, which she purchased of R. M. Wade & Co.

J. H. Burton has commenced his fall plowing and expects to put a few more acres into hops next year.

Those who have hops for sale are standing pat and when a buyer makes an offer they smile and look wise.

W. E. Bevens returned Tuesday from Portland where he had been on a combined business and pleasure trip.

F. G. Frost of Spokane spent a day or two in the city this week, investigating the possibilities of this section.

The hop warehouse at this place is filled to overflowing owing to the fact that everybody is holding for the market to go up.

When in town drop in and get one of those full size 25c dinners served daily from 11:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. at the Gem Restaurant. 19t

Mrs. Ed Owen and daughter, Miss Nola, left for Portland last Monday afternoon where they went to spend the week with friends.

Wm. McLaughlin was among those who were attracted to the city last Sunday by the man hunt that took place a few miles south of town.

Mrs. W. D. Moreland and her two sons, of Tacoma, Washington, are in the city on a visit to Mrs. Moreland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cooper.

Parties who are in a position to know state that only two car loads of hops have been shipped so far this season from the Independence district.

Dick Madison of Salem came over Sunday to take part in the man hunt that took place near Buena Vista. He says that it was a very exciting chase.

About half of the male population of the city was out hunting last Sunday. Those who were not out hunting pheasants were taking part in the man hunt.

The Malleable Range, made in South Bend, is for homes where the best is none too good. See it at the Hanna Bros. exhibit this week. Hot coffee and biscuits free.

A beautiful cook book and useful souvenir given away all week at Hanna Bros. store. Also hot biscuits and coffee. Something still more interesting there. Come and see.

A hunting party from Portland passed through town last Sunday in an automobile on their way home. They reported having had good success, each of the party having bagged the limit.

No meaningless and gaudy nickel and trills. Just a solid, substantial, exquisite piece of kitchen furniture—that's all. The Malleable, made in South Bend. See it at the store of Hanna Bros.

W. W. Newton, who recently purchased the Long and the People's meat markets, moved his family into town last Saturday, having rented the Clara Smith place in the eastern part of the city.

Nelson Anderson, Harley Prather, Wm. Bevens, Miss Maggie Black, Miss Lena Steele and Miss Eunice Elkins, of Buena Vista, attended the dance given at the opera house last Saturday evening.

The Southern Pacific has finished the work of removing gravel from the river bed at the foot of C street and taken their steam shovel away. The gravel was used in ballasting the road bed of the main line both ways from Independence.

While there is not much doing just at present in the realty line there have been a number of changes made in the personnel of the business firms of the city and a number of others are said to be under negotiation.

R. H. McCarter and wife returned home last week from a visit to Mr. McCarter's parents who reside a few miles out from Dallas. They were called over on account of the illness of Mr. McCarter's father.

Bulk oysters, eastern and Olympia, at the Gem Restaurant. 19t

Crabs, clams, crawfish and all kinds of shell fish, fresh every day at the Gem Restaurant. 91t

Wanted—Lady or gentleman to canvass. Apply to The Pacific Home, Salem, Oregon. 21-23

Seventy new amberol four-minute records this month. Call and hear them at Craven & Moore's. 18t

Why use stale Portland bread when you can get better fresh made bread delivered at your door. Insist on having Fritz' bread. Take no other. 20-22

Ask your grocer for Fritz' home-made bread and doughnuts. Take no other. They are made from hard wheat flour. Made in Independence. 02-23

R. D. Cooper, who has been to Portland to attend the horse show held there, has returned home. He says that there were a large number of fine horses exhibited.

After skating luncheons are very popular. You can telephone your orders for oysters from the skating rink and thus be sure of quick and prompt service at the Gem Restaurant. 19t

The streets last Sunday had the appearance of hop picking time and every automobile that came in from the scene of the man hunt was surrounded with a large crowd who were anxious to hear the latest news from the seat of war.

The Independence football team arrived Saturday noon in automobiles. In the number were Maurice Butler, Grover Mattison, W. F. McAdams, A. Emerick, James M. Jones, Alva Rogers, Laurie Cran, F. D. Pomeroy, Jess Emerick and Rube Williams.—Albany Herald.

The city is having gravel hauled for the purpose of putting in concrete crossings on Main street between the bank and R. M. Wade & Co.'s and on Monmouth street between the bank and P. H. Drexler's and on C street between the post-office and Hanna Bros.

C. W. Henkle, who last week purchased the undertaking businesses of Bice & Calbreath and H. H. Jasper, has rented the building once occupied by Geo. Dunham's harness shop, on Main street, and is having it fit up in first class shape as an undertaking parlor.

Monarch Malleable, the "Stay Satisfactory" range, needs no introduction as it is sold on its merits. Every range is put out on trial. If you are thinking of purchasing a range, do not fail to call at R. M. Wade & Co.'s and inspect the points that these goods have above all other ranges.

D. P. McCarthy, manager of the Fir Grove hop yard about a mile and a half east of the city, returned last Saturday from a ten days' hunting expedition in the vicinity of Grants Pass and Myrtle creek. Mr. McCarthy says himself and party succeeded in getting four fine bucks, one of which he had the distinction of killing.

Al Whitney, Frank Whiteaker and W. A. Ball took to the brush last Sunday. They went north instead of south to be sure to get away from the escaped convicts whom the posse were hunting. They report having had excellent sport and all of them got the limited number of China pheasants.

Astonishing how quickly the trend of public favor changes. Already it has been filled to satiety with Cook and Peary, before the stories now running through the press of the country, of "The Conquest of the Pole", are concluded. The Oregonian began publication of these stories under their twelve headings. What they end in is a guess, if they are not abandoned altogether.
