

POPULAR PRICED CLOTHING

We are, this fall, showing the best line of new clothing it has ever been our privilege to show in popular priced garments. Our increased sales in this line prove to us the truth of the above assertion. The fabrics this season are 20 per cent better than in the same priced garments of a year ago. The colorings are not loud but equal in beauty to anything we have ever shown. The tailoring is unquestionably first-class. Every detail in the making of these garments is as carefully looked after as in the much higher priced garments while the fabrics are much better. Nearly every garment is strictly all wool. Popularly priced at from $10.00 to $18.00.

This Was No Joy Ride.
Asa Taylor and Ed Owen had a narrow escape last Friday afternoon from what might have been a bad runaway. As it was Ed got off with a sprained ankle, and a broken neck yoke was about the only damage to the buggy. Asa recently purchased a pair of colts which he is breaking for the buggy. Friday afternoon he hitched them and invited Mr. Owen to take a ride. While driving along in the vicinity of the Stewart place, northwest of town, Owen attempted to alight from the buggy and in doing so his foot caught in the lap robe. In the fall the lines were jerked from Taylor's hands and the colts started down the road full tilt. It was some time before Taylor could regain possession of the lines and when he did it was where the road made a square turn. Rather than take a chance of turning over he ran them into the fence where they stopped, breaking the neck yoke.
