

STEAL AWAY TO GET MARRIED

Married in Salem Wednesday, November 10, 1909, Miss Hattie Mix of this city to Mr. M. R. Black, a farmer in the Independence country. It is supposed that the ceremony was performed at Salem at noon on that day but where and by whom it is not learned. All that is known is that they stole silently away and are now enjoying their honeymoon in Portland and Spokane.

Both contracting parties are so well known here that the friends almost feel slighted that they were not allowed to be present on the happy occasion. Miss Mix is the accomplished tallness who has an extensive business here and Mr. Black is one of the well known Black Brothers who are prominent operators in business in and about this city.

They are expected to return to Independence this evening and it is planned by the friends of the bride and groom to give them a reception in the way of an old fashioned charivari.

MRS. W. H. PARK IS DEAD.

At six o'clock last Tuesday morning the spirit of Mrs. W. H. Park took its departure to be with Christ, from her late home on Third street, while her lonely husband, other relatives and kind neighbors were gathered around her bedside. She had been an invalid most of the time for two years or more and during the last three months had been a very great sufferer, requiring the closest of constant attention. Her daughter, Mrs. Vermillion, came from Kansas to assist Mr. Park in caring for her, but was obliged to return about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Park, formerly Miss Miriam L. Haskit, was born October 3, 1850, in the state of Ohio. In her early life her family moved and founded a home in the new state of Kansas, where she lived until six years ago, when she, with her husband, came to this place where they have since resided. About forty years ago she and her parents, having been converted to Christ, were baptized at one time by Rev. J. R. Baldwin at Mound City, Kansas, and from that time until her death, she lived a consistent Christian life. She was a faithful, active member and regular attendant of the Baptist church here as long as health permitted. To a neighbor who saw her struggling painfully along to church last summer, she said, "I want to go to church just as long as I am able. I can bear the burdens of the week better after I have been to church." Independence needs still more of such citizens.

In 1871 she was married to Mr. W. H. Park and to them were born four children, of whom these three are now living: Mrs. Nora Vermillion of Kansas, Adelbert Park and Eldon Park of Portland. She has two sisters still living, Mrs. Stansberry and Mrs. Stevenson. Mrs. J. R. Baldwin and Mrs. Samuel Baldwin of this city are sisters of Mr. Park.

The funeral service was held in the Baptist church Wednesday at one o'clock and was conducted by Pastor Maynard R. Thompson, who spoke a message of hope from the text, "These are they that came up out of great tribulation and washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." The full regular church choir sang appropriate hymns expressive of her faith in the Savior. As the body was being borne to the Odd Fellows cemetery even nature seemed to sympathize, for the almost incessant rain ceased and the sun shone out to comfort the sorrowing and lonely hearts.

A Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for several years for diarrhoea. I consider it the best remedy I have ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity."
