OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

The funeral services over the remains of John L. Fishback took place at the family home three miles west of Monmouth, Friday morning, December 3, 1909. Elder W. A. Wood, pastor of the Christian church of Monmouth, officiated. Interment took place in the K. of P. cemetery south of Monmouth.

Mr. Fishback was born in Rappahannock county, Virginia, June 4, 1830. He came to Oregon in 1868, first locating in Dallas, Polk county. He was a good mechanic, an honest man and an esteemed citizen of Polk county, having resided here for over forty years. At one time he worked on the National Capital building in Washington, D. C., and this was always a source of pride to him as he considered it an honor to have worked on the great structure. He also worked on the first wing of the old Christian College at Monmouth, and built the first South Methodist church of Dallas which is now known as the Adventist church.

He was married to Elizabeth Scott, April 5, 1874. To this union were born ten children of whom nine are living and all at home. The eldest daughter preceded him to the other world, February 16, 1886.

He accepted his Savior at Dallas in 1872 under the preaching of T. F. Campbell. He served as deacon at Antioch for a number of years and was a faithful and consistent Christian until death.

Mr. Fishback was a devoted husband and father and was humble, loving and tender like the Master.

Choosing a Christmas Present.

When you make a present of a periodical to a friend or a family you are really selecting a companion to influence them for good or ill during a whole year. If the acquaintances of your sons and daughters were to talk to them aloud as some periodicals talk to them silently, how quickly you would forbid the companionship! In the one case as in the other the best course is to supplant the injurious with something equally attractive and at the same time "worth while." A food can be wholesome and utterly distasteful. Reading can be made so, too. But The Youth's Companion not only nourishes the mind, but delights it, just like that ideal human associate whom you would choose. The Youth's Companion fills that place now in more than half a million homes. Can you not think of another family in which it is not now known where it would be joyfully welcomed?

If the $1.75 for the 1910 volume is sent now, the new subscriber will be entitled to all the remaining issues of 1909; also The Companion's "Venetian" Calendar for 1910, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold. The Youth's Companion, Companion Building, Boston, Mass.

New subscriptions received at this office.

For a Lame Back.

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain, and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Hands Down Opinion.

Attorney General A. M. Crawford has filed answer in the case of the Corvallis & Eastern vs. the State Land Board, in which he declared that the state legislature cannot lawfully give away state lands and that any act with that effect is ultra vires and void. The case involves certain lands on Alsea bay, Lincoln county.

DEATH CLAIMS SARAH SHINN

Mrs. Sarah L. Shinn, who died in Kennewick, Washington, Monday, December 13, 1909, was a native of Oregon, having been born near Junction City, in Lane county, July 10, 1877. At the age of eight years she removed with her parents to Independence and at the age of sixteen she was married to J. E. Shinn, an electrician, who had charge of the electric light plant of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shinn removed about ten years ago to eastern Washington where she died last Monday.

The death of Mrs. Shinn bereaves a husband, one son and three daughters who reside at Kennewick, Washington. The father and mother of the deceased, two brothers and three sisters reside in this city. The sympathy of the Enterprise, as well as that of the entire community, is extended to the bereaved ones.

Mrs. Shinn was a member of the Women of Woodcraft, having joined that order in Sumpter several years ago.

The funeral took place in this city yesterday at 1:30 from the Presbyterian church. The services were conducted by Dr. H. C. Dunsmore and the remains were laid to rest in the I. O. O. F. cemetery of this city. The Women of Woodcraft attended in a body, as well as a large number of and respect in which deceased was held.

Thieves Don't Advertise.

"Sneaks and thieves don't advertise," was the text of an immigration sermon recently delivered by a McMinville minister. He followed this up by showing the value of intelligent publicity work in attracting settlers to the Pacific Northwest and the benefits alike to the newcomer and the country settled. Each settler means added wealth to the state and in return the Pacific states offer greater opportunity to the man from the older sections of the country. The Northwest has a duty to perform, believes this pastor, in bringing people from the overcrowded districts of the east to this land of opportunity and live cities in the Northwest are making the most of their advantages in attracting settlers.
