

REV. MR. TAYLOR IS SLANDERED

Evangelist Taylor is out this week in war paint. Some one in Independence has circulated a scandalous story to the effect that he and the woman with whom he is traveling are not man and wife and he is filled with indignation over the rumor that a traveling man claims to have met these people elsewhere and also he knows the woman traveling with him not to be his wife. Rev. Mr. Taylor, hearing of the report being circulated, hurled anathemas from the pulpit Monday night against one and all guilty of circulating the slander. He offers one hundred dollars for information of the source of the slander. He then turned upon the people and condemned in unmistakable terms the gossiping habit.

Now the people of Independence are wondering who will come forward to claim the money.

Evangelist Taylor's work is unique, he is eloquent and true to the core and it appears that he has been done a great injustice by some worthless slanderer.

Independence is Defeated

In the game of basket ball which was played in this city last Friday night between the teams of the high schools of Albany and Independence the score was 52 to 17. The game, however, was full of excitement.

On Annual Tour,

Mrs. Carrie Hubbard, president of the Oregon Assembly of Rebekahs, left Independence on Wednesday of last week on her way to Southern Oregon in the interest of her lodge work. She will visit Roseburg, Eugene, Cottage Grove, Ashland and other points. On this trip she will not make any of the interior towns. A letter received by her husband, J. E. Hubbard, states that the weather in Southern Oregon is warm and sunny. She reports that the lodges of that section are taking an active interest in the work and are giving good turnouts at her meetings.

Mrs. Hubbard will return to Independence the last of the month.
