HIGHLAND NEWS

Miss Ethel Shafer left Wednesday of last week for Boring, Oregon, where she will nurse her sister, Mrs. Joe Loundree, who has been quite ill with measles.

Mr. Whiteaker last week, while up in an apple tree sawing off limbs, forgot to hold on, with the result that he came tumbling earthward. The fall did not hurt him, oh no, but as ill luck would have it he came in contact with mother earth and he has been feeling rather black and blue since. Last Wednesday night again found the Highlanders all met together in one of their little social dances at the pleasant home of Mr. Hamann. A goodly number were present and they all seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest in dancing and card games, but the most important event was the midnight lunch, served by the ladies.

George Shafer is now working for Frank Turner of Hopdale.

Misses Tinnie Kizer and Golda Rhodes spent Thursday and Friday with relatives of the latter near Dallas.

An old-fashioned spelling match was held at the Highland school house last Friday night. A goodly number of Highlanders and social visitors were present and all seemed to take great interest in the spelling work. After the match was over a literary society was organized and the following officers elected for the next month: President, Lonor Compton; vice-president, Sam Russell; secretary and treasurer, Miss Mae Ballard; editor, Valen Guild; critic, C. E. Nash; marshal, George Agee. Next Saturday night a program will be given, and the first debate will take
