UNTIL DEATH DO US PART.

Hold me close in your loving arms,
As if you would bid me stay;
For the boatman pale, on the river
death,
Is waiting to bear me away.
Away o'er the waters dark and deep,
To my eternal rest and sleep.

I hear the dip of the golden oars,
The shadowy sails I see;
I hear the roar of the waters deep,
That will roll between you and me.
Between you and me forever
more,
'Till we meet again on the other shore.

The vows that we've spoken long years ago
Have ever been fresh in our hearts;
"Leaving all others cling only to each other,
Until death do ye part."
Darling hold me fast by the hand
As I drift away to the unknown land.

Nay, do not weep, my husband,
It makes it so hard to go;
It seems my heart is breaking,
Because I love you so.
Call our little ones to me, I would kiss them a last good-bye;
You must be father and mother both, and comfort them if they cry.

They will not mourn for me long,
dear,
Childish sorrow soon passes away;
But you'll tell them sometimes of the mother,
Who loved them but could not stay.
Tell them that with care and love,
I'll watch o'er them from my home above.

I know you will miss me, darling,
That you will not soon forget;
But you have ever been kind and true,
And so will have naught to regret.
And if some time in the future
a face that is fair to see,
You honor with your love, dear,
you will yet remember me.

Kiss me good-bye, my darling,
And hold me close to your breast;
I would drift away into the future,
While your lips against mine are pressed.

I hear the Angels calling and fancy I can see The lights of heaven streaming out through the gates afar for me.

No longer I fear the waters dark,
Or dread the boatman pale;
I wait for the sound of the golden oars,
I watch for the shadowy sail.
I shall welcome the bark that bears me away
To my Father's home in endless day.

For though you will miss me, darling,
And though it is hard to go;
It is best or he would not call me,
As we most surely know.
And though our burdens are heavy and sorrow and pain
will come,
We must meekly bow to our Father's love, and say: Thy will be done.

"I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past eight years and find it to be one of the best selling medicines on the market. For babies and young children there is nothing better in the line of cough syrups," says Paul Allen, Plain Dealing, La.
This remedy not only cures the coughs, colds and croup so common among young children, but is pleasant and safe for them to take. For

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

forth that during the month of March 1909, twenty tons of land plaster was shipped to him at McCoy from Portland. This car reached him on the 12 of April containing somewhat less than twenty tons. The charges asked for the transportation of this car were paid by him under protest, as they were considered excessive. The rate charged for the car was thirteen cents per hundred pounds, amounting to $51.51. The former rate, he alleges, was eight cents from Portland to McCoy and Perrydale, a correponding distance, and the rate from Portland to McMinnville is seven cents.

Sears' complaint also states that the agent at McCoy recognizes that thirteen cents is excessive and took the matter up with the S. P. officials who also admitted that the rate of thirteen cents was excessive, but claimed that as only twenty tons had been shipped in a thirty-ton capacity car the railroad company was entitled to the alleged overcharge.—Salem Statesman.
