The illustrated lecture given in the M. E. church Saturday night by Reverends McCain and Weber was well attended and besides being very entertaining it was highly instructive. The lecture and illustrations dealt with the educating of the negroes. Sunday, February 13, was one of the greatest days seen in the Methodist Episcopal church of Buena Vista for a number of years. During the morning service twenty-two or more men, women and children, were baptized. These together with several who were immersed on the day before made a total of twenty-nine. After the baptismal ceremony the doors of the church were opened and thirty new members were received into its fellowship. Rev. Wire of Eugene, as stated by Rev. McCain, presided at the ceremonies.

Claire Trenholm, an old friend of C. E. Nash, spent a few hours Sunday with him here.
