HIGHLAND NEWS

Walter Kizer and C. E. Nash were Independence visitors Tuesday.

Highland was pretty well represented at the dance given in the opera house at Independence last Tuesday night, by the attendance of Sam Russell, his sister and brother-in-law, Earl Reuf and the Misses Mae Ballard and Lois Osborne.

A number of ladies met at Mrs. Ryxbee's home Thursday and assisted her on a quilt.

Fred Hamann and George Shafer took in the dance at the opera house in Independence Tuesday night.

The most enjoyable as well as the best attended dance of the season was given at the home of A. Hamann Monday night in honor of Mrs. Hamann's birthday. An excellent lunch was served at midnight and according to the old saying "we did not go home until morning". In all there were sixty-three present; by families they were as follows: A. Hamann and family, P. Shafer and family, George Reuf and family, Frank Turner and family, Mr. Burrous and family, Mr. Guild and family, Mr. Ballard and family, D. W. Haley and family, Mr. Daniels and wife, Harry Dixon and wife, Misses Tinnie Kizer and Lois Osborne, Messrs. Sam Russell, Henry Dickinson, Solomon, Cleve and George Bridges, Norval and George Stapleton, Ellwood Hartman, Clem Hart, Walter, Jim and Hugh Kizer, Victor Seeley, Lonor Compton, Clint Agee, Dell Grigsby and C. E. Nash.

Friday night a crowd of Highlanders, thirty-four in number, drove to Frank Turner's at Hopdale and rushed in on him in the form of a surprise. A most enjoyable time was had by all in dancing and card games and after an excellent lunch, the crowd dispersed in the wee, small hours of the morning.

Joe Kizer was transacting business in Independence Monday.

The literary work Saturday night was good, but a small crowd was present on account of the stormy weather. A most enjoyable time is anticipated for the next meeting (Saturday, March 5) as on that date a certain young man of this vicinity will be tried for a crime which he is purported to have committed against the state and his fellow-man. C. E. Nash will represent the prosecution and Mr. Campbell will represent the defense. The case will be tried before Chief Justice Kirby of Kangaroo Court. Every one is cordially invited to attend these meetings.

Annual Stockholders' Meeting

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Independence Cannery Company will take place on the morning of Tuesday, March 8, at 10 a. m. in the opera house in Independence, said meeting to be held for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before this meeting.

C. L. Hawley; Charles Cleveland; D. W. Lytle; A. L. McIntosh; G. G. Belts and Dr. McClure.

It is urged that all who are interested in wool growing attend.

Saved A Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold" he writes, "that developed a cough that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 175 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble, it is supreme. 50c.
