NEWS BUDGET FROM SCHOOL

The students of the high school are highly elated over the advent of a new high school. This will be an opportunity for many to finish a high school course, who otherwise could not have had it. We could have had a number enrolled this winter in special courses had we had the rooms and teaching force.

The eleventh grade has completed the study of geology and will take up elements of botany for the rest of the year. It may rush the season somewhat to furnish specimens for this work.

The seventh grade was reviewed by Mr. McIntosh on Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice". The review brought out features of splendid work on the part of both teacher and pupils. The strangest feature, perhaps, is that boys and girls alike have fallen in love with Portia.

The book-keeping class had an unpleasant surprise on Monday in way of a test. If the business men of our city have designs on any of our book-keeping students please investigate their work in person. The teacher will be glad to explain all their deficiencies.

A new game seems to have been started among some of the older students in the grades during intermissions,—pinning the tail on the donkey. The boys do the kicking instead of the donkey.

Mr. Seymour visited our schools recently and gave a talk to the high school students, dwelling upon the familiar adage: "If every student in school were just like me, what kind of school would our school be?" This might be considered with some benefit, by the patrons as well as students.

A few cases of pink-eye are reported, possibly due to the unusually cold weather for this time of year.

Names of pupils who were absent for four days and over during month of February: Helen Butler, 4½ days; Anna Doty, 4 days; Gladys Fleming, 4½ days; Pearl Hazelton, 8 days; Sylvia Hazelton, 8 days; Albert Hilke, 5½ days; Gilbert Stallings, 5 days; Johnnie Osborne, 5 days; Mary Scheman, 5 days; Pearl Redding, 5 days; Byron Howard, 5 days; Marschel Cooper, 5 days; Arthur Miller, 4½ days; Robert Hillard, 10½ days; Archie Barnard, 8½ days; Chris Burright, 12 days; Frank Durrell, 8 days; Esther Muhleman, 5½ days; May Reeves, 7 days; Lucile Craven, 4½ days; Francis Eaton, 4½ days; Bonner Garrett, 5 days; Gerald Howard, 5 days; Glen Newton, 8½ days; Joseph Eaton, 10½ days; Roscoe Howard, 4½ days; Robert Craven, 6 days; Fritz Weber, 6 days; James Neil, 7 days; Lee Osborne, 7½ days; Ernest Ball, 11 days; Gladys Wheeler, 9½ days; Geneva Leighton, 6 days; Opal Olin, 13½ days; Vera Wilson, 5 days; Charlie Dawes, 4 days; Eldora Montgomery, 7½ days; Silba Snell, 4 days; Herbert Reuf, 8 days; Gladys Miller, 9 days; Merle Brown, 6 days; Dewey Burright, 6 days; George Osborne, 6½ days; Nellie Raffety, 11 days; Hallie Raffety, 11 days; Eva Ames, 4 days. Very few of these but what have excuses from some one in the home. Just consider for a moment the loss to the district in paying for the education of these children who are absent for the number of days opposite their names. Parents should not excuse children for anything except sickness. At ten cents a day per pupil the net loss to the district would be about $40 for one month's absence, or nearly the wages of one teacher. Why not encourage attendance?

Our new wash waistsings both in white and colored patterns are the prettiest shown yet. For your Easter gloves, come and see them. We have a large assortment in all the latest shades. In ladies' muslin underwear we have the largest stock ever shown in Independence and at prices you can not help but buy. Just received a shipment of men's and boys' clothing which is built to wear, combined with style and durability.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.

L. T. L. MEDAL CONTEST

There will be a contest in public speaking among the boys and girls of the L. T. L. on Monday evening, March 14, at the Methodist church. About a dozen children will make speeches on the temperance question and the best speaker in each of two classes will be awarded a silver medal. This will be something new to the people of Independence and they are all invited to come and encourage the young orators. No admission will be charged, but a free-will offering will be taken to defray expenses.
