FALLS UNDER MOVING TRAIN

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moseman were called to Tacoma last week on account of the death of their brother-in-law, Frank Tisch, who met death in that city on Wednesday of last week. Death was due to his falling between cars while employed as yardman in the terminal grounds of the Northern Pacific railroad in Tacoma. Death was instantaneous. The funeral of the unfortunate man took place at the home of the family of the deceased last Sunday afternoon. The wife of the deceased is well known in Independence where she formerly resided with her sister, Mrs. Fred Moseman. Mrs. Moseman is still with her sister in Tacoma. She will return to Independence some time during the coming week.

An Ideal Cough Medicine

"As an ideal cough medicine I regard Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in a class by itself," says Dr. R. A. Wiltshire of Gwynneville, Ind. "I take great pleasure in testifying to the results of Chamberlain's Cough Medicine. In fact, I know of no other preparation that meets so fully the

Delegate to State Grange

Delegates from Mono and Oak Grove granges, in the persons of E. N. Staats, Frank Loughary and Mrs. Ike Simpson of Mono, and Finlay Edgar, A. R. Allen and I. M. Robertson of Oak Grove, met in Independence last Monday for the purpose of electing one delegate to the convention of the state grange which is to hold its session at Oregon City May 10. Frank Loughary was the choice of the delegates to represent Polk county's grange organizations. A. R. Allen was elected alternate to act in place of Mr. Loughary in case he should not be able to attend the state convention.

Marshal's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that taxes are now due and payable to the City Marshal of Independence on all dogs within the limits of said city. On and after this date all dogs found on the streets without collars and tags will be impounded for a period of ten days after which time they will be advertised and sold to the highest bidder. Unless sold they will be bid in by the city when the Marshal will be authorized to kill them.

By order of the Council of City of Independence, January 19, 1910. J. A. Byers, City Marshal.

Will Offer Competition

Traffic arrangements are being completed between the Hill railroads, The Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Spokane, Portland & Seattle, and the Oregon Electric Railway whereby a traffic interchange will be established that will give the Willamette valley a competing line with the Southern Pacific on transcontinental freight. This arrangement is bound to prove an advantage to the people of this whole valley for competition in transportation, as in everything else, is helpful.

We Make a Specialty

We make a specialty of fancy brands of canned goods—goods with a reputation for quality that please the most exacting taste. The MONOPOLE canned goods is a brand that we take pride in recommending to the trade. A good quality of Corn, Tomatoes, Peas, Beans, is the Red Cross. When it comes to canned fruits Wadhams & Kerr Bros' Monopole stock is the best that can be obtained. Comparison is odious for they have the flavor of the fruit fresh from the tree.
