NOT FIT TO BE KISSED
 "What ails papa, mother?" said a sweet little girl.
 Her bright laugh revealing her teeth white as pearl:
 "I love him, and kiss him, and sit on his knee;
 But the kisses don't smell good when he kisses me."
 "But, mamma,"—her eyes opened wide as she spoke—
 "Do you like those kisses of 'bacco and smoke?

 They might do for boys, but for ladies and girls
 I don't think them nice," as she tossed her bright curls.
 "Don't nobodies' papas have moufs nice and clean?
 With kisses like yours, mamma—that's what I mean;
 I want to kiss papa, I love him so well,
 But kisses don't taste good that have such a smell.
 "It's nasty to smoke, and eat 'bacco and spit;
 And the kisses ain't good, and ain't sweet, not a bit!"
 And her blossom-like face wore a look of discontent
 As she gave one to so ear-nest and so freedom
 Yes, yes, little darling, freedom has seen
 That kisses for daughters should be clean;
 For kisses lose something of nectar and bliss,
 From mouths that are stained and unfit for a kiss.
