Surprise Tendered Miss Whitcomb

A surprise farewell party was given at the home of Peter Kurre, Tuesday evening, April 19, 1910, in honor of the early departure of Susie Whitcomb.

The guests assembled at Mr. Moseman's residence and after waiting upon some of the late comers until 8:30 o'clock, went to Mr. Kurre's, where Susie was entertaining Frieda Moseman for the last evening before leaving.

She was totally surprised to see fourteen guests come walking in through the kitchen; but seeing the fun, she greeted each cordially and escorted them to the parlor where games were soon begun.

After each had enjoyed a hearty laugh at playing "Shaking Quaker," the game, "The Hub of the Universe," was introduced. In this, Ella Chase received first prize and Velma Heffley the booby. The next game was a yawning contest. Mrs. Kurre, acting as judge, awarded the prize to Doris Herren, she being the one who gave the sleepest yawn without a suspicion of a smile. Several other short games were then played, and partners for lunch were chosen by playing "The Filling of Noah's Ark".

Those present were: Susie Whitcomb, Frieda Moseman, Doris Herren, Velma and Florence Heffley, Gladys Putnam, Ella Chase, Claudia Byers, Lee Whitcomb, Jerome Reese, Willard Reeves, Ranio Burkhead, Dwight Quisenberry, Ivan Wood and Fred Smith.

At a late hour, after light refreshments had been served, the guests departed, all having spent a very enjoyable evening.

Lecture Was Pleasing Event

The lecture delivered by Dr. H. Charles Dunsmore at the opera house last Monday night was an event of much interest to the intellectual element of the city. Dr. Dunsmore handled the story of "Jean Valjean" in a masterly manner, considering the disadvantage one must necessarily be at in dealing with so exhaustive a subject in one lecture. The book requires a season of lectures to do it anything like justice, however, his audience was delighted with his presentation of the story. Those who may not have been fortunate enough to have had previous knowledge of the great masterpiece took home with them a realistic picture of the characters and something of the wonderful pathos in which Victor Hugo so ingeniously wrapped the story.

The musical numbers, in which was represented some of the leading local talent of the city, were much enjoyed. In all it was a delightful event and one all may well hope to have repeated.

Object to Strong Medicines

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by P. M. Kirkland.

Pauline Miller-Chapman Concert

The second and last number of the series of concerts at Monmouth will be given Friday evening, April 29, by Pauline Miller-Chapman, mezzo-soprano. Although Monmouth has had some notable musicians this will be the greatest treat of them all. Mrs. Chapman won instant recognition abroad and the press was very enthusiastic about her voice. In Berlin she was presented with a large laurel wreath by her many admirers. She studied with Prof. Lamperti, Europe's greatest vocal teacher, who expressed an opinion to a prominent teacher that there were not ten better voices in the world. Madam Eteika Gerster, the celebrated coloratura singer, predicted recently that Mrs. Chapman would become the first singer of America.

Arrangements are being made for a special motor to accommodate Independence people. Tickets will be on sale the first of next week at Williams' drug store.
