Independence Wednesday. Mr. Browne was formerly editor of the Silverton-ian-Appeal of that city.
Mrs. H. Chas. Dunsmore, who has been in Manitoba closing up the estate of her mother, lately deceased, arrived in Independence last Saturday night.
Conkey, Walker & Lehman, the store that always saves you money, always carries the best dependable merchandise. Goods not satisfactory, money cheerfully refunded.
Eph Young, who has been sojourning at Carson springs for about a month, has returned to his home in Independence. He is considerably improved in health.
The ladies of the M. E. church will ning at 2 o'clock. If you are hungry come and see them.

Miss Ethel McDonald of McMinnville has been elected to finish out the unfinished term of Miss Mary Schollard who recently resigned her position. Miss McDonald is a strong teacher and is doing good work. She is a normal graduate and comes with good recommendations as a teacher.

The eighth grade state examination takes place for the schools of Polk county May 12 and 13. There are about twenty applicants for eighth grade papers from the Independence schools, twelve of whom have been recommended by the principal as having completed the course of study prescribed by law, but all will be given a chance to write in the examination.
Come in and let us show you our big assortment of men's golf and negligee shirts. They are beauties. You will find them at Conkey, Walker & Lehman's.
Dr. Dunsmore's son, B. Fay Duns-more, who has been employed with the Honeyman Hardware Company for nearly four years, will come to Independence the last of this week, and will spend the summer under the paternal roof. The young man is threatened with incipient pulmonary disease and his physician has ordered a complete rest and life in the open as much as possible.
J. W. Wardrip left Independence Wednesday with his family for Winnipeg, Canada. He is interested in a large tract of land near that place and will spend some time in looking after business matters connected with it. Mr. Wardrip does not know where he will make his future home but for the present he will reside at Winnipeg. Independence loses a good citizen in Mr. Wardrip.
Ladies' and men's shoes. Yes we have them, the best known makes

Two bull dogs created a little excitement on south Main street on Tuesday afternoon, having a little misunderstanding which they proceeded to settle in the way preferred by that particular breed. One of them at least, ought to have known better, being the property of a preacher, and environment ought to count for something, even in "dog morals." As a consequence, "Mac" is staying at home, nursing a swelled nose.

Prof. J. G. McIntosh returned from his weekly visit to Portland Sunday evening. Mr. McIntosh reports his wife in a restful condition. The treatment has not progressed far enough to show any actual results but all conditions are favorable, and the best of hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery. Word received on Wednesday reported a lower temperature than she has had at any time since she went to Portland.

Miss Cordia Gooch will return to her home in Dallas Monday.
Mrs. Carl H. Percival spent a few days in Portland this week visiting relatives.

One Light in Two Thousand Miles For the first time the Great southern coast of Alaska, more than 2,000 miles long, has this winter a light-house.
Though one of the most dangerous and difficult of navigation, even in summer, this area has been wholly neglected until now. The first light is on Cape Hinchbrook, at one of the entrances to Prince William sound. There are many other places where lights and fog signals are almost as urgently needed, notably Cape St. Elias, where steamers are often held up for days because of fog and a long, hidden reef. Other lights are, however, to be added next year.

For two nights commencing May 3, Lester S. Riley will present the well known popular actor, Lee Willard and company in vaudeville. Mr. Willard has played here on several previous occasions and has always proved a great favorite. His wonderful versatility in handling the many different roles in which he has appeared has won for him admiration of all who have seen him. This time Mr. Willard appears in two comedy sketches. Mr.
Carrie Godfrey, late of Savage Opera Co., also deserves special mention.
The other members hail from Pantage & Sullivan and Considine circuits. The company has been playing to capacity houses every night—a fact which is necessary considering the reduced prices.
