X Why use two pairs of glasses when Dr. Lowe can fit you with one pair that you can use for all purposes? They have no lines, divisions or splits in them; one solid piece of glass. Call at Hotel Independence Friday, May 27, and have him show them to you.

V. P. Fiske, the bright and successful editor of the Dallas Itemizer, was a pleasant caller on the Independence Enterprise yesterday while en route to southern Oregon where he goes as a delegate to some lodge gathering this week. Editor Fiske is now enjoying the first vacation he has taken in more than twenty years.

J. S. Compton of Highland was in town last Friday. He brought in to this office some of his first crop of strawberries which are as fine as could be grown anywhere. The largest one in the lot was almost two inches in diameter. He has almost 1700 plants out and expects to sell a considerable quantity this season.

L. S. Compton departed Friday on his way to the Palouse country in eastern Washington where he will assist his uncle, E. J. Compton, in preparing summer fallow for next year's sowing. He expects to help with the plowing of between two hundred and three hundred acres. Mr. Compton had just completed planting his five acres of yellow Newtons before leaving for eastern Washington.

FREE TRIP TO MEXICO

The Chas. E. Hicks Real Estate Co. is authorized by the Mexico American Land Co. of Kansas City, Mo., to offer to take a representative from this county to see the great "Fortuna" tract land on the southern gul coast in the Republic of Mexico, and return, absolutely free—free railroad fare, free sleeping car berth, free meals, and arrange various free entertainments for this enjoyable midsummer excursion.

THIS REPRESENTATIVE to be chosen by the citizens of this county and to accompany the excursion as the special guest of this company, the excursion to start from Kansas City.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 22, 1910

In special Pullman cars provided by the company carrying representatives from all over the country. This is the greatest undertaking ever undertaken by any land company. Arrangements are now being made for the entertainment of the excursion party. In addition to showing the splendid "Fortuna" tract of land, comprising 162,000 acres of the richest land in the world and the delightful country surrounding the same, special facilities will be had on this excursion to instruct the representatives in all matters of interest pertaining to the Republic of Mexico; including an investigation of the laws, the customs of the people, the stability of the Mexican government; and afford the representatives an opportunity to study personally the conditions that exist in that most favored land of opportunity. There will be shown the fertile lands in a district blessed with ample and seasonable rainfall for all the immense variety of valuable crops shown there. There will be shown and explained the splendid profits to be made on this chosen land from the growing of corn, tobacco, rice, sugar cane, bananas, oranges, lemons, grape fruit, pineapples, coffee, rubber, chocolate and many other products. There will be shown a district where cattle, horses, hogs and poultry flourish all the year around without shelter, and are matured with but little expense. A country where nature has lavishly bestowed her most abundant favors, a country that is now awakening and presentin to the American homeseekers and investors opportunities that cannot be found elsewhere, will be shown. There will be shown a tropical country at the midsummer season; showing, that even at this season, the climate is ideal—the days pleasant, the nights cool and invigorating. Splendid streams of water will be shown, pure and clear as crystal, flowing through the chosen lands to the gulf. All this is to be done at the expense of the company, and return to the states in two weeks, if the excursionists so desire.

All information and rules governing this great free excursion will be furnished by

Chas. E. Hicks Real Estate Co.

Prohibition Contest at McMinnville

The Pacific States Prohibition Oratorical Contest will be held in McMinnville, May 30. Representatives from southern California, northern California, Washington, Idaho, and Oregon will at that time compete for at the biennial contest to be held at the honor of representing the section at the Binnial contest to be held at Valparaiso, Indiana this summer. The successful orator will receive $75 in gold and together with Mr. W. E. Gwynn of Pacific University, will represent the west.

Preparations are also being made to have a prohibition convention on the same day, at which some of the best speakers of the state will be present.

At least four colleges of Oregon will also compete in a tennis tournament on the college grounds the same day. This tournament is open to all who desire to enter.

Carroll Hill Wooddy, class of '11 McMinnville College, won the state contest some weeks ago, and will represent the colleges of Oregon in the coming contest. Mr. Wooddy is the son of Dr. C. A. Wooddy, Superintendent of the Baptist Home Missions on the Pacific coast, of Portland. It is hoped both delegates to the national contest will be from Oregon.

Mr. Wooddy delivered his oration before a large gathering of citizens recently, and won high commendation
