NEWS ITEMS OF OTHER CITIES

The Oregon-California Redoubt encampment opened in Klamath Falls Sunday, June 26, with a meeting preliminary to the 10-days' session.

George Ferran, one of the river pirates who with George Burke was accused of numerous thefts along the Willamette river, was convicted at Portland.

Senator Chamberlain's amendment to the sundry civil bill, to appropriate $15,000 for the Crater Lake road, was cut to $10,000 on account of the insistence of the house conferees.

The state treasurer's office has received the inheritance tax from the estate of the late Caroline Ladd, amounting to nearly $14,000. The net value of the estate was $1,491,194.57.

With the visit of F. L. Knelp, assistant forester, to Portland comes the announcement of a project to make 260,000 acres of land in the Paulina Mountains available for the settlers who are rushing into Central Oregon.

C. L. Hueston of Astoria, who has the contract to build the jetty at the mouth of the Nehalem river, will commence work about July 1. The jetty, when completed, will be about 900 feet in length. This will insure a depth of about 20 feet of water at the bar.

Judge Campbell instructed a jury to return a verdict for the defendant corporation, Pacific University, and its president, W. N. Ferrin, in the case of Fred Hill, a minor, who sued for $10,000 damages for the loss of an index finger through the discharge of a gopher gun.

Judge H. J. Bean of the circuit court for Morrow county, has affirmed the adjudication of the rights to the use of the waters of Willow creek in that county, arrived at after a full investigation by the board of water control. It is the first full determination of the rights to the waters of a stream under the new water law enacted by the 1909 legislature.

Requests for Senator Bourne's speech poured in in such volume in the closing days of the session of congress that it was necessary for him to order additional copies, making 800,000 in all, with provisional requests, not yet passed on by Bourne that make it certain that the total will pass the million mark within another month.

The Oregon railway commission has filed a complaint with the interstate commerce commission against the Southern Pacific and about 50 other railroads, alleging that less than car-load rates from Eastern points to points in Oregon, on the Southern Pacific south of Portland, are excessive in that they exceed the rates in effect prior to March 22, 1910.

After a delay of four or five months, during which the title to over 26,000 acres of land was examined, the syndicate of Portland capitalists which contracted for the immense Crook county ranch of the Baldwin Sheep & Land company last February, formally took title to the property last week. The consideration involved in the deal was $450,000, all of which was paid in cash to the former owners.

That portion of the state board of fish commissioners at the capital and which has authority in the matter, is at a deadlock over the selection of a new master fish warden, with only one apparent chance of solving the difficulty. That chance is that the position may be accepted by Henry O'Malley, chief of the Oregon division of the United States bureau of fisheries.

Declaring the preponderance of public sentiment in Tillamook county is unalterably opposed to the assembly plan, the Tillamook county republican central committee repudiated that method of choosing candidates.

Fifteen-year-old George L. Batchelder, of Hood River, in competition with several hundred other boys from all sections of the United States, has won a prize for constructing the best aeroplane model.

Poison Oak Poisoning
Ballard's Snow Liniment cures it. Mr. O. H. P. Cornelius, Turner, Ore., writes—My wife has discovered that Snow Liniment cures "Poison Oak Poisoning", a very painful trouble. She not only cured a case of it on herself, but on two of her friends who were poisoned by this same ivy. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Williams Drug Co.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing easy, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.
