Mr. and Mrs. John Underwood have sold their home here in Independence to Alfred Jones, who will take possession at once. Mr. and Mrs. Underwood expect to go back East this fall possibly to remain. It is hoped by their friends that they will decide to return here.

R. E. Ferguson received a letter from his brother, Elias, who recently removed from Independence to Canada. The letter gives intelligence of Lloyd Ferguson's close call to death recently when he was thrown from a horse and sustained several severe injuries about the face. His lower jaw was broken in two or three places, but he will soon recover without any permanent injuries.

Miss Opal Hall of New York City is visiting her parents at Monmouth and her sister, Mrs. Claude Skinner of Independence. Miss Hall is superintendent of city drawing teachers of the public schools of New York City whither she will return to take up her work again this fall. Her many friends in this vicinity are justly proud of her success in our great metropol's.

F. J. Hartley, a real estate dealer of Los Angeles, was in Independence Friday and Saturday, visiting at the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Winters and family who reside near town. Mr. Hartley drove over the valley about Independence and Monmouth Friday and was agreeably surprised to find such a country as we have. He frankly acknowledged that it looks as good to him as any place he has ever visited. The Williamette valley was certainly a revelation to him.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fishback, who has lived on Monmouth Heights for the past twenty-five years and whose husband, John L. Fishback, died last winter, died at her home on the 6th of July. Her death was superinduced by an injury received in a runaway accident which occurred while she was returning from the pioneer picnic at Dallas. She had not enjoyed good health for some time previous and the shock proved too much. She was a good Christian woman and will be greatly missed.
