JOHN DEERE BUGGIES ARE ALL RIGHT

"JOY RIDERS"
COME TO GRIEF

Two married women of Corvallis were fined $10 each this morning for being out after 12 o'clock, a young man of this city paid another $10, and an Albany sport is now out on $25 cash bail. The parties were picked up on First street last night after their return from Albany and while the men were trying to sober up the women sufficiently to get them home in a fairly presentable condition. Both of the women are mothers of children and one is the wife of a husband having a good reputation in this city. The other woman is a guest at this home. The young man who put up $10 isn't noted for any Sunday school disposition, and little is known of the Albany sport who put up the $25 bail. He will probably not return to stand trial.

Judge Denman was called up at 4 o'clock this morning and asked to hold court that the affair could be over before daylight, but that official demurred and told the officials to get cash bail from them or land them in jail until the proper time to hold court. The officials couldn't get the money and were too tender-hearted to put them in jail, so kept them at police headquarters until Judge Denman appeared early in the morning.

Rather than charge the party with any more serious misdemeanor, it was decided that they should be fined for violating the city ordinance against being out after 12 o'clock. The women were quite "sassy," but Judge Denman gave them a lecture that they may well remember. The husband of one of the women put up the fine for both of them.

Judge Denman suggests that there are going to be other arrests of the kind sooner or later. The "joy rides" some of the young men and women are inclined to take at late hours do not get well with the officials and sooner or later others out after hours will be taken up by the police.—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

BOY IS SHOT BY ACCIDENT

Earl Miller, the nine-year-old son of W. P. Miller, was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of his brother Harold at the family home in East Dallas Sunday.

Harold was shooting at a target with a twenty-two calibre rifle and Earl and his father were watching. The young marksman had cocked the gun and was in the act of raising it to shoot when the weapon caught on his coat and was prematurely discharged, the ball striking the brother in the left breast, just above the heart.

Crying, "Oh, papa," the wounded lad sank to the ground, dying instantly.

Catarrh being a constitutional disease Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
