

MAYOR GAYNOR ASSASSINATED

William J. Gaynor, mayor of New York, was shot in the head Tuesday while embarking for a vacation on an Atlantic liner for Europe. The wound is serious but may not prove fatal. The mayor was removed to a hospital from where bulletins are being issued as to his condition.

The big liner was gay with flags and ringing with shouted good-byes when the shooting occurred. Most of those who had been aboard the ship to say farewell to friends or relatives had gone ashore, but a little group remained to talk with the mayor. They were standing on the port side of the vessel, near the promenade deck forward, and were in the act of posing for a group photograph when Gallagher, the would-be assassin, unnoticed pushed his way almost to the mayor's side and fired point blank at his head. The man Gallagher is locked in a cell at Jersey City, held without bail. He expresses no remorse.

Cougars Show Up Again.

Thos. Warren of Talmage reports having seen the cougar which was reported in the Highland country a short time ago. One day last week while on his way to Brown Lake fishing, he came upon two cougars out on the Ketchum place. Cougars have been seen in that vicinity during the last two or three years and efforts have been made several times to run them down but without success. Mr. Warren is anxious to see a party organized to go out and hunt them. He believes that they can be found with little trouble.
