The Sunday Oregonian contained the following item of interest to Independence people: A quiet home wedding occurred at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Rowcliffe, 200 Marguerite avenue, last Wednesday afternoon, when their daughter Helen was given in marriage to Clarence C. Gibson. Rev. J. J. Staub performed the wedding service.

Republicans four years ago were led to believe that by their vote they were electing to office a flat salary candidate for State Printer. After nearly four years' experience they are now told by Mr. Dunway that he only pledged "an economical business administration," and now hollers for more of the GRAFT. Give William J. Clarke your primary vote.

Ernest Zellesch was in Independence Wednesday with a load of fine porkers which he delivered to Spelling Bros. Mr. Zellesch says that he believes the hogs which he brought to town were the best that were ever delivered here. There were six of them and they weighed 355 pounds each, netting him the handsome sum of $225. They were thoroughbred Berkshires.

HURT IN RUNAWAY

MONMOUTH NEWS

Thursday afternoon while Mrs. J. H. Fennell and daughter were driving into town their horse took fright at a pile of lumber at the side of the road, and ran away. The buggy was dashed against the sidewalk with so much force that Miss Fennell was thrown out and severely injured. Dr. Butler was called and she was resting quite easy at last accounts. The buggy was quite badly demolished.
