LESSONS FROM TROLLEY CARDS

In the trolley cars of Bronx borough, New York city, are displayed some advertising cards placed among the other advertisements, presumably without charge, by the company which controls the advertising in the cars of the borough. The cards inform the riders and readers that the articles advertised in the cars are to be found in the stores of the borough and advise the intending purchasers to procure them at home. It is understood, of course, that the quality of standard articles is the same wherever they are purchased, and it is assumed that the merchants of the borough will make as reasonable prices on the articles as any one will.

The position taken by the advertising company in thus helping along the men who help it certainly seems to be a wise one. Local purchasers are induced to buy standard goods, advertised all over the country as well as in the local cars, from the local merchants. The latter are, in turn, enabled to buy advertising space in the cars. The Germans, who are prolific makers of wise sayings, have an old saw which says, "One hand washes the other, and both become clean." It is an encouraging sign of the growing prosperity of the borough that the local merchants are using more and more space in the cars and that the borough newspapers are flourishing as never before.

Isn't there here a moral to be gleaned by other places? The moral is, Encourage home trade by all means. The trade that goes out of a town does not benefit it; it is the trade that seeks and finds its natural outlet at home that helps. It counts not only for the man who gets it, but for the man who gives it, for the latter helps his neighbor as well as himself.

The uplifting of the general level of prosperity which is apt to follow keeping trade at home helps every man and woman in a town by keeping up wages, by distributing profits so that everybody in a town gets a share, direct or indirect, of the benefit.

The mail order houses have their place in the business world, and they do good—to the men who run them, many of whom have accumulated much money in the business. But when they take out of any particular town money that should be spent there legitimately they cannot be said to be a benefit to that town.

In addition, there is the personal and social side of the question. Looking at it as fairly as you will, buying goods from a catalogue and sending to a strange, faraway city the money that has been earned in one's home town, often with the advice and cooperation of one's neighbors, is a cold blooded proposition.

How much better it is to meet your neighbor man to man, over your counter or over his, and sell to him or buy from him what one needs. If "life is made up of little things," as has been said very often, the little friendlinesses and greetings of personal intercourse are worth something, probably more than the small profit that is to be gained by patronizing a house far away that can be nothing but the embodiment of "business." And in many cases the monetary profit is only imaginary when the time and bother involved in the transaction and the real worth of goods bought are taken into consideration.

Do You Feel This Way?
Do you feel all tired out? Do you sometimes think you just can't work away at your profession or trade any longer? Do you have a poor appetite, and lay awake at nights unable to sleep? Are your nerves all gone, and your stomach too? Has ambition to forge ahead in the world left you? If so, you might as well put a stop to your misery. You can do it if you will. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will make you a different individual. It will set your lazy liver to work. It will set things right in your stomach, and your appetite will come back. It will purify your blood. If there is any tendency in your family toward consumption, it will keep that dread destroyer away. Even after consumption has almost gained a foothold in the form of a lingering cough, bronchitis, or bleeding at the lungs, it will bring about a cure in 98 per cent. of all cases. It is a remedy prepared by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., whose advice is given free to all who wish to write him. His great success has come from his wide experience and varied practice.

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good." Dr. Pierce's medicines are of known composition. Their every ingredient printed on their wrappers. Made from roots without alcohol. Contain no habit-forming drugs. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Increased Livestock Production
The increase in livestock production throughout the Northwest following the establishment of a big market at Portland is shown in receipts at the local packing plants. One day last week receipts at the stockyards were over 4000 head. These animals were shipped from various localities in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana and such deliveries show that the money formerly going east for large shipments of livestock is being kept here at home.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH
Next Sunday morning Hon. R. A. Booth of Eugene will have charge of the pulpit in the interest of the laymen's association. Mr. Booth is a very godly man and has consecrated his time, talents and vast wealth entirely to God's cause. To hear him is a rare treat. In the evening there will be a union mass meeting in the interest of "Oregon Dry 1910." Rev. W. B. Hollingshead, president of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, will address the citizens. No man in our state presents a more formidable argument against the saloon and in favor of prohibition. Let every one hear him. Good music both morning and night. Sunday school at ten and song service in the evening at seven o'clock.
