

MOCRATS TO HAVE CONTROL

Chicago—That the next House of Representatives will be controlled by the democrats is conceded. The democrats gained from the republicans seats in congress in eight states.

In New York seven republican seats were secured by the democrats; in Maryland, Massachusetts, North Carolina, each, the republicans lost two seats. Losses are definitely known to have been sustained in Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio.

The known democratic gain of 18 seats, is offset by two republican gains from the democrats, one each in New York and Pennsylvania. Reports received from other states indicate that the democrats will have ample margin to secure them the 22 seats necessary to give them control of the House, two democratic gains previously having been reported in Maine. Twenty-four were acquired before the Maine election.

Grandfather Clause Helps

In Oklahoma returns indicated that the democrats probably gained two seats, due apparently to the operation of the so-called grandfather clause.

which debarred the negro voters from voting.

At democratic headquarters in New Jersey, it was declared that the state would hold eight seats, making a gain of five.

Democrats in West Virginia had gained in three districts.

Missouri showed one known, with three probable democratic gains, while in Iowa and Illinois the returns indicated the democrats would gain a total of six seats.

In North Carolina returns indicated democratic gains which would increase to three.

Socialist for Congress

A big surprise came from Wisconsin when the republican committee conceded the election of Victor L. Berger, Socialist, to congress from the Fourth district, which is now held by the republicans.

Returns indicate that the Socialists have polled more than 40,000 votes in the city of Chicago.

It is the first time in 18 years that the democrats have carried the House of Representatives.

New York City will be represented by an almost solid democratic delegation.

The United States Senate will probably have a reduction in the republican majority as a result of legislative elections held in many states.

HOME RULE BILL WINS IN OREGON

The biggest surprise in the election returns was the greater Oregon home rule bill running ahead of the vote against prohibition. Not only did the bill lead in Multnomah County, but also in the state. The home rule bill and the vote against statewide prohibition ran 2 to 1 in Portland. Returns from the state did not change the indication that the home rule had carried and that prohibition had been defeated. Many of the cities in 'dry' counties gave large majority for home rule and against prohibition.

Pendleton went "wet" by about 10 to 1, but incomplete returns from rural precincts indicated that the big majority of the urban vote would be cut down. Grants Pass in "dry" Josephine County gave about 2 to 1 in favor of the "wets," but the rural vote threatens to make this showing almost an even break. Early indications from Lane County were that the vote would be close. Early returns from Astoria gave the "wets" about 2 to 1 majority in favor of the home-rule bill and against prohibition.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all good dealers.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM IOWA

Porter and Carroll Expect to Win in State.

Des Moines—The republicans and democrats both claim the governorship with the democrats showing the greater confidence. If Governor Carroll is re-elected it will be by the narrowest of margins.

Claude R. Porter, democratic gubernatorial candidate, claimed that he would carry the state by 20,000, but more conservative estimates based on 100 precincts out of 2300, place his plurality (if any) at 4000 or 5000.

Governor Carroll declared that the early returns were all from the cities and that estimates based upon them were bound to be erroneous.

This state has 11 congressional districts. I. S. Pepper, the young democratic candidate in the Second district, walked away with the election, carrying every county over his opponent, Charles Grik. It was in behalf of the latter that Colonel Roosevelt recently made his address in Davenport.

Republicans Win Nebraska

Omaha—Although the returns are comparatively meager, it appears that Mayor James Danlman, of Omaha, democratic candidate for governor, has been defeated by Chester A. Aldrich, republican, by a safe majority.

Congressman G. M. Hitchcock, on the face of the returns, has a safe lead over United States Senator Elmer J. Burkett in the race for the senate.

WOODROW WILSON ELECTED

New Jersey Elects Democratic Governor by Large Majority.

Trenton—Dr. Woodrow Wilson, former president of Princeton, defeated Vivian M. Lewis, the republican nominee for governor of New Jersey anywhere from 10,000 to 20,000 plurality.

The democrats claim the legislature and while this claim does not seem so well based as that of victory for the state ticket, it would not be a surprising thing if they were found in a position to elect a democratic senator.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder. A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of
