While the weather is not so frigid in this section of the globe as it is in other parts we have lived in, it is considered too cold for the comfort of the average Oregonian. Rainy conditions are most pleasing at this time of the year.

If you are looking for the latest patterns and the best fitting clothing either for man or boy, come to us. We carry nothing but the latest and best.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.

Lots of people from different parts of the state have a business eye on Independence and vicinity for the reason that land values in this section of the valley are very reasonable as compared to other towns.

Henry Serr, a well known commercial traveler from Portland, was in the city a couple of days last week. Mr. Serr has traveled in Oregon for several years and always finds friends wherever he goes.

Henry E. Browne expects to move his family here from Silverton as soon as suitable rooms can be obtained. Anyone having a good dwelling to lease might be interested in calling at this office.

Our table linen for quality, assortment and pretty patterns cannot be beat. You will always find the best at Conkey, Walker & Lehman's.

While the hop market is comparatively low, there were some very good deals made in this vicinity last week. The world has Independence to beat as a hop section and our growers always manage to unload just when the market is about right.

So far as we have been able to learn nothing out of the ordinary occurred here Thanksgiving day. The climatic conditions were favorable and in this respect everyone appeared to be thankful. The turkey and the family reunions were the usual attractions.

Fancy linen stamped and embroidery, full assortment and exclusive patterns.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman

Before the time rolls around for another census there will be a greater increase in the population of Independence than there has been during the past ten years. The town has reached a point where its growth is inevitable. The spirit of progress is here and evinced on every hand.

Clover Leaf Rebekah Lodge, at a recent meeting, elected the following officers: Noble Grand, Mrs. Annetta Hooper; Vice Grand, Mrs. Luella Williams; Secretary, Mrs. Hattie Henkle; Treasurer, Miss Katherine Jones. The lodge is progressive and bids fair to be successful in the coming year's work.

Kitchen Prowler Abounds

Last Sunday night, Mrs. Dunsmore being alone in the manse, the other members of the family being in church, a prowler slyly opened the kitchen door, and was about to enter when Mrs. Dunsmore called to him, asking him what he wanted. He quickly pulled the door shut and made a hasty retreat. As there was no light in the house, it is supposed he thought the family were all at church. On Monday evening, Mrs. C. W. Butler had a somewhat similar experience, finding a strange man in her kitchen.

It is supposed there is some sneak thief infesting the town, looking for a chance to make a grab, either at estates or valuables.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all good dealers.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me. For sale by all good dealers."

Death of James Robinson

Died at Independence, December 1, 1910, James Robinson, aged seventy-seven years, one month and twenty-six days.

James Robinson was born in Kanaway county, West Virginia, August 4, 1833. With his family he came to Independence in 1883 and has lived continuously here with the exception of one year which was spent at Dryad, Washington. He was preceded in death by his wife who died August 15, 1907.

There are three children surviving him: Candace and Jennie of this city and John, of 757 Raleigh street, Portland, Oregon.

The funeral arrangements were not fully arranged at the time of writing this notice, but the funeral will take not be granted.
