

During the Stormy Weather

You will be interested in something that will provide comfort for the body. Investigate our stock of Dry Goods and you will be benefited. We handle a complete line. L. Rice, Independence, Oregon

INDEPENDENCE NEWS

C. E. McCready of Corvallis, was in the city Saturday.
 M. Moores of Forest Grove, was in the city Monday.
 R. H. Hoog and wife of Copull, were in the city Monday.
 Ivan Wood of Portland, is visiting friends in the city.
 Hear the road show at the opera house next Monday evening.
 C. W. Sloan visited his parents in Cornelius a few days last week.
 If you are not a subscriber to the Enterprise, get on the list and help us "boost" for the city.
 Don't fail to attend the basket ball game at the auditorium Friday evening.
 W. A. School, a representative of The Oregon Power Co. of Dallas, was in the city on business Monday.
 The steamboat landed a little farther up the river yesterday, the old dock being under water.
 There are 53 Sundays in 1911, and according to the Statesman, this does not include "Billy Sunday."
 The snow is fast going down the Willamette and all are glad to see it go. A week of winter is sufficient.
 The plumbers of Independence were busy Saturday and Sunday making repairs after the work of Jack Frost.
 Several in the city are afflicted with colds and the physicians are having their inning.
 FOR SALE—A good fresh milk cow 3 years old. Call upon or address George Jones, Monmouth, Ore. Bell Phone 227. p34-35.
 C. A. Keeney of Newberg, manager of the Spaulding lumber plant at that place, was in the city on business Monday.
 Last Saturday evening was the appointed time for the installation of officers at the M. W. A. camp, but the meeting was postponed on account of the cold weather.
 Independence was nearly under water yesterday as a result of the high water. Sidewalks were afloat and all sorts of inconveniences were experienced.
 Mrs. Bush is visiting in Portland. Geo. W. Skeals went to Newberg on Monday where he will be engaged a short time building a box factory for the lumber company there.
 The Orpheum Road Show, presenting what is said to be high class vaudeville, under the management of W. Forbes and Kate Kid, will be presented in this city January 21. The company comes well recommended and will probably put on a good show.
 We are informed that a party from Salem has made arrangements to open a store in the building on Main St. formerly occupied by Mr. West.
 The mercury came within twelve degrees of reaching the zero mark last Saturday morning. It was an extremely cold day for Oregon.
 The only business reported in 1910 hops in the Oregon market, says the Morning Oregonian in an issue a few days ago, was the purchase by Mr. Harris of the Spurling lot at Independence at 16 3/4 cents. There was a rumor to the effect that an option at 18 cents had been sought on a 200 bale lot at Independence, but it could not be confirmed.
 The first basket ball team of the Independence High School will meet the first team at McMinnville in a game in this city Friday evening of this week. The home team is said to have been strengthened considerably of late and a warmly contested game is anticipated. Let everyone interested in the home team be on hand Friday evening.
 The Old Towne Quartette gave a very interesting entertainment in the Star Theatre Monday evening. The attendance was fairly large and the singing was highly appreciated. It is the last number but one given by the Lyceum Bureau, and many who have attended each of the series of entertainments this season pronounce the one last evening the best of all.

Dr. Allin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg.
 M. T. Wray of Silverton, was in the city on business Tuesday.
 LOST.—A gold watch; fob. Finder will please leave it at this office. N 44.
 A. L. Snow of Silverton, was in the city Tuesday looking for a location in which to open a box-ball alley.
 Chas. E. Hicks transacted business in Portland the fore part of the week. Dr. Lova, Feb. 3.
 Wm. McAdams has secured a position as mail clerk in the House at Salem and is now on duty.
 Miss Iva Cooper of Portland, was visiting at the home of her parents a few days last week.
 C. P. Price went to Rickreall on Sunday to spend the day with relatives and friends.
 Miss Belle Brown of Jefferson, is expected here this week on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Blanchard.
 William Wallace Kuns went to the county seat Tuesday in pursuit of employment.
 Miss Sadie Aldrich of Los Angeles, spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. M. E. Stansberry.
 Mrs. N. Chambers of Eugene, is visiting friends and relatives in the city.
 There will be services at the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend.
 Water pipes have been causing all sorts of trouble since the cold weather set in and the plumbers have had their harvest.
 Roy DeArmon, bookkeeper in the Independence National Bank, went home sick with the grippe Wednesday.
 C. E. Lampman, who has been in the city for a week, visiting at the home of the writer, returned to his home in Stayton Wednesday.
 Last Saturday marked the closing of the duck season, and Independence duck hunters will have to wait another year for the sport which has been participated in extremely this season.
 Verd Hill went to Salem Tuesday evening to attend the K. of P. District Convention. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, it was a pleasant occasion.
 East side passenger trains passed through Independence this week and the depot has been a busy place for a few days. They were unable to get through on the other side on account of the high water.
 Al Whitney and Wm. Percival went out on a hunting expedition Sunday and concluded to go on foot after the experience the first named nimro had a few weeks ago on the water. Al would not go out on a battle ship now.
 The auto stage was unable to get through to McNary's Crossing Wednesday morning but made the trip that evening. The gasoline launch, Louise, happened to be landed at the dock here that morning and the passengers went to Salem by water.
 When given as soon as the croupy cough appears Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will ward off an attack of croup and prevent all danger and care of anxiety. Thousands of mothers use it successfully. Sold by all good dealers.
 Do you know that fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp or chronic rheumatism, and require no internal treatment whatever? Apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely and see how quickly it gives relief. For sale by all good dealers.
 Rev. A. R. Blackstone preached in the Baptist church last Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Green has been engaged to fill the pulpit permanently and is expected to arrive here this week in time for next Sunday's services. In the event that he is unable to get here the pulpit will be supplied by some other person.
 Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy to its superior excellence. Sold by all condition. Thousands have testified good dealers.
 Hanna Bros. purchased a farm one day this week, consisting of 184 acres. The place was purchased from Benton Bowers and is one of the finest ranches in this county. They also purchased a fine team from Mr. Ingermanson and are prepared to enter the husbandry in up-to-date manner. John Hanna will move on the place at once and have charge of the same.

Mrs. Frita Weber has been visiting in Portland for several days.
 Clarence Ireland of Portland, was in the city the latter part of last week.
 The revival meetings which have been in progress during the past two weeks, closed Friday evening.
 The Dallas and Independence basket ball teams will play in this city on Friday evening of this week.
 Peter Cook and his efficient force of clerks are well pleased with the new enterprise which the former purchased a short time ago in this city.
 Will Rowe and wife of Rickreall, visited friends and relatives in this city Saturday and Sunday.
 W. E. Craven went to Roseburg on business Sunday, returning Wednesday.
 K. C. Eldridge was in Portland Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week where he took the Scottish Rite degree in Masonry.
 Miss Rice, a trained nurse from Portland, arrived in the city Tuesday morning and is caring for B. Wilson during his illness.
 The Masonic lodge of this city purchased a fine New Player piano last Saturday and the instrument was placed in service at once.
 Floyd Totten of Portland, is visiting his mother, Mrs. C. N. Thorp. He will go to Alberta, Canada, about the 20th of this month.
 The W. O. W. Circle and W. O. W. Camp will hold joint installation in their hall this evening. The orders are making arrangements for a big time.
 The river is higher at present than it has been this season, and still rising. The heavy rain has turned the snow to water and the banks of the Willamette are filled to overflowing.
 B. Wilson did not get away to California as soon as he expected to and was consequently detained on account of sickness. He will go, however, as soon as he is able.
 Mrs. J. S. Bohannon and daughter, Miss Bertha, went to California last week just in time to escape the cold in Oregon. They will be absent until March.
 Mrs. O. A. Kreamer returned from Springfield the latter part of the preceding week, where she has been for several days visiting her mother. The latter returned with her and will remain in the city a few weeks.
 At the annual meeting of the stock holders of the Independence National Bank held in this city recently, H. Hirscheberg was elected President, A. Nelson Vice President and C. W. Irvine Cashier.
 Dr. Buttler, C. W. Buttler, J. A. V. Buttler and John Dickinson went to Salem Monday evening to participate in the R. and A. M. degree work at the Masonic meeting. They report a good time.
 Miss Bertha Collins has accepted a position in the Bell Telephone office, filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Erma Brown whose marriage to Frank Whiteaker was mentioned in the Enterprise last week. Mr. and Mrs. Whiteaker are now living in Albany.
 That Clave Thorp is not a novice in the art of harness making is evinced by a glance at the neat little harness in R. M. Wade & Co's show window. It is small but the workmanship is first-class, and the harness will serve the purpose, for which it was made, nicely.

Wendel Hill was among the first to try the ice on the pond last Friday. It proved not strong enough to hold a heavy weight and he measured the depth of the water with his person.
 The W. O. W. circle held a very pleasant meeting Friday evening and initiatory work was the interesting feature. The order has taken on a new spirit and there is going to be considerable work of this kind during the winter.
 Mrs. Paul Hanson of Medford, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Geo. Kuch, returned home Wednesday last week. The latter accompanied her as far as Salem where she remained until Saturday with friends.
 The state of Oregon is paying out thousands of dollars annually to experts trained in all phases of fruit growing, farming and house keeping in order that the people of the state may benefit by this information. Are you getting your share? If not attend the Farmers' Week course at the Oregon Agricultural College February 13 to 17 inclusive. No fee. Special railroad rates. n34-35.
 The Oregon Agricultural College is ready to give you, free of charge, information about farming, fruit growing, stock raising, butter and cheese making, road building, or drainage and irrigation. There will be from forty to fifty lectures on all these subjects during the Farmers Week, February 13 to 17. More than 400 men and women attended last year. No fee. Railroad rates. Come and enjoy this great opportunity. n34-35.
 THE MARKETS.
 Portland.
 Wheat—Track prices: Club, 82c; bluestem, 85c; red Russian, 80c.
 Barley—Feed, 24c; brewing, 27c.
 Oats—No. 1 White, 29 per ton.
 Hay—Timothy, Willamette Valley, $19@20 per ton; Eastern Oregon, $21@22; alfalfa, $14.
 Butter—Creamery, 35c; ranch, 24c.
 Eggs—Ranch, candled, 36c.
 Hops—1910 crop, 18c; 1909, 14c.
 Wool—Eastern Oregon 13@17c lb.; Valley, 17@19c lb.
 Mohair—Choice, 30@31c.
 Seattle.
 Wheat—Bluestem, 85c; Club, 82c; red Russian, 80c.
 Barley—$23 per ton.
 Oats—$29 per ton.
 Hay—Timothy, $26 per ton; alfalfa, $19 per ton.
 Butter—Washington creamery, 35c; ranch, 22c.
 Eggs—Selected, local, 37c.
 MAKE YOUR OLD CLOTHES LOOK NEW WITH THE NEW YEAR BY HAVING THEM RE PAIRED, CLEANED AND PRESSES AT THE ENTERPRISE PRESSING PARLOR.—L. R. COMPTON, PROP 32tf.
 The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church will meet Thursday afternoon in the basement of the church. They expect to take up the new work for the year and every member please try to be present and bring as many new members as possible.
 The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church, will on February 2, commence a series of Missionary Tea's, to be held in the basement of the church, in the afternoon from 2 to 5. All are invited. Charge 10 cents.
 The series of entertainments given by the Lyceum Bureau will close with the number to be given February 3, by Gilbert A. Eldridge, the popular impersonator. Mr. Eldridge is said to be one of the best in his class and it is certain that Independence people will be highly pleased with the last number.
 Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank, Bell phone 121; Independent, 4410.

To Please is Our Delight.
 WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons.
Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords.
Our Shoe s are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley.
Our Compliments
 and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in the THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim.
Drexler & Alexander
 GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

The Arcade Cigar Store
 F. A. WILLIAMS
 CIGARS, TOBACCOS, CANDIES, SOFT DRINKS AND CONFECTIONERY
 C STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

COTTAGE HOTEL
 CHARLES SAVAGE, LESSEE
 Special Attention to Commercial and College Organizations
 160 Court street. Telephone 209 Main
 Telephone and Messenger Service at Hotel Salem

TALK AND PRINTERS' INK . . .
 Does not do all in Merchandising. Experience and a well Selected stock of Groceries, China Ware, Etc.
 is what has been the means of building up our immense trade. We need not say more. We cater to the Grocery trade and solicit your patronage.
L. G. REEVES

THE PALM BARBER SHOP
 W. T. BALL, PROP.
 ALL WORK GUARANTEED. BATH IN CONNECTION. INDEPENDENCE. C. STREET.

A Shapely Collar

 is every gentleman's desire and shapely Collars are the only kind we keep. The very latest styles in Linen Collars, and the newest things in neck-ties are always to be in our establishment. Then again you will find here the most stylish Summer Shirts, Pajamas, Socks, Gloves, Suspenders, and everything that goes to complete the dresy gentleman's wardrobe, and the prices are most satisfactory.
O. A. KREAMER

 Important properties of the Grape are transmitted by ROYAL Baking Powder
 Absolutely Pure
 to the food. The food is thereby made more tasty and digestible
