

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

FOR SALE—Spits pups. Inquire of C. Truitt. p38-0

Mrs. M. E. Stansberry visited in Corvallis the fore part of the week.

J. W. Alexander of Black Rock, is visiting relatives in the city.

Burt & Clay opened their restaurant in the Allen building Tuesday.

No school Wednesday. It was Washington's birthday.

New milch cow and chickens for sale.—James Brown. Home Phone. 722 n. 34.

Miss Kora Browne of Silverton, will arrive in the city today and remain until Sunday with her parents.

Long & Campbell sold a new automobile Monday to Mr. Mesner of McMinnville.

FOR SALE—Rhode Island Red cockerels, also eggs for setting.—Both Phones.—L. M. Jackson.

M. Ingemannson attended the Sunday School convention in Portland last week.

Mrs. Geo. Whiteaker has returned from Albany, where she has been visiting for some time.

C. J. Thile of San Diego, Cal., attended the K. of P. banquet here Monday evening.

Rev. W. J. Weber attended the Sunday School convention in Portland last week.

Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank. Bell phone 121; Independent, 4410.

Some mischievous youth threw a rock one day last week and hit Fritz Webber's little boy in the face, inflicting a serious wound.

Bicycles are in operation on the streets of Independence. Something out of the ordinary for this time of the year.

It is reported that a man from Monmouth is talking of starting a barber shop here. We have three now.

Mrs. W. H. Craven returned from Portland Friday where she went to attend the funeral of her father, W. L. Roberts, a former resident of Independence.

H. M. Bronson of Salem, of the Horticulture Fire Relief Co., was in the city this week talking fire insurance.

For quick sales you should list your land and other property with the Owl Real Estate Co., 158 S. Commercial St., up stairs, Salem, Oregon. Phone Main 204. n33-2.

Wm. McAdams returned from Salem Wednesday, where he has had the position of Mailing Clerk in the House during the session of the Legislature.

The Christian church bible class, 28 in number, were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. W. Felzer last Thursday evening. A very pleasant time is reported.

The Washington's Birthday ball given in the opera house Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Independence foot ball team, proved to be a grand success.

Among the visiting members at the K. of P. banquet given here Monday evening were W. E. Kurtz, F. H. Muscott, J. E. McCarter, A. P. Starr, J. A. Lynch, and J. C. Ford, of Dallas, who came on the evening train.

One span of bay geldings, weight over 2800, coming four and five year old, one bay mare, weight 1250; two sets of harness and two farm wagons.—O. T. Murphy. Home Phone, 1451. p-39-0.

LADIES.—On Saturday, March 4th, 1911, we will give, absolutely free, to each lady calling at our store, a package of choice variety of Sweet Pea seeds, from the famous Flower Farms of California. $10.00 in cash given away as prizes.—Williams Drug Co. 34-36.

Again Friday night the Independence basket ball team took defeat. This time it was the McMinnville High School team in the auditorium the The Monmouth Public School team played the Independence Public school team in the auditorium the same evening and the game was five and five.

Dr. Allen, Dentist, Cooper Bldg.

See J. G. McIntosh's new ad in this issue.

Gasoline, 25c per gallon at Independence Garage. 1f.

Mrs. Wyatt of Brownsville is visiting at the home of E. E. Tripp.

Coffee—real coffee, with cream—at the Mission Cafe. 34.

Mrs. J. E. Hubbard visited in Salem Saturday.

The city council has had men and teams at work this week cleaning the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilgipe of Amity, formerly of this city, spent Sunday with friends here.

D. J. Purvine commenced work on the construction of a new house near the High School building yesterday.

Home made pies—like mother used to make—at the Mission Cafe. 34. Cafe. 34.

Al Forward of Salem, was in the city Tuesday evening.

G. H. Hunter of Salem, was in the city Wednesday.

Carl Percival moved upon his father's farm the fore part of this week.

FOR SALE—A good covered spring back, as good as new.—F. S. Wilson. 34-37

Clarence Irvine of Portland, was in the city on business the fore part of the week.

Mrs. L. C. Crider of Dallas, spent a few days in the city this week with friends.

Mrs. Van Oradel of Dallas, visited in the city with friends a few days this week.

Call at Compton's Pressing Parlors and have your measure taken for a suit by an experienced tailor.

GIRL WANTED—to assist in light house work. Inquire at this office. p38-

Cracked crabs, salads and eastern and Olympic oysters at the Mission Cafe.

Dr. Butler reports the arrival of a girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McClain, at Wells, Tuesday.

Mrs. Chase, a pioneer of Monmouth, was buried Tuesday. C. W. Henkle, undertaker at this city, had charge of the burial.

Rev. Dr. Bell of Corvallis, is expected here this week on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Jr.

Several people from Salem were in the city Tuesday evening in automobiles. They were enjoying the fine weather and good roads.

Mrs. McClaine, a former resident of this vicinity, and well known in Independence by the early settlers, died at Grants Pass a couple of weeks ago.

Wm. Raesback of Minneapolis, was in the city Monday. He says eastern people are going to come this way thick and fast when the low rates go into effect March 1.

Surveying of all kinds done, and special attention given to platting, and setting out of orchards. All work guaranteed. Don't forget the number, 158 S. Commercial St. up stairs, Phone Main 204. n39-2.

Mrs. S. D. Simons, successor to Miss Purvine, has returned from the city and is ready to show her early spring hats. Later, she will have an opening of the swellest hats ever brought to the city. 34.

The Independence Commercial Club met in the Club room Tuesday evening and it was expected that election of officers would take place, but there being other business necessarily to be looked after before the new officers are elected, the meeting adjourned until Thursday evening. We go to press too early to give a full account of the last meeting.

W. Good and Chas. McCauley were coon hunting on the east side of the river Sunday afternoon and they returned with three animals, two dead and one decidedly alive. Mr. Good is nursing a sore thumb the result of having been bitten by the youngest member of the coon family. Mr. Good didn't have any trouble in holding him, but met with difficulty in letting him go.

Take the Enterprise and the Oregonian, both for $2.00 per year.

Miss Florence Burton visited in Dallas Monday.

G. M. Nolan of Portland, was in the city one day this week.

W. Holmes of Newport, transacted business in the city Saturday.

C. M. Hall of Salem, was in the city Friday.

J. K. Thompson of Ealo, was in the city Saturday.

J. A. Morrison of Salem, was in the city Monday.

J. S. Smith of Alville, was in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Chas. Dunsmore returned from Portland on Tuesday.

E. C. Doyles of St. Louis, was in the city Wednesday.

Geo. Ostrom of Portland, was in the city yesterday.

K. K. Boyne of Salem, was in the city Wednesday.

Wilbur and O. B. Croft of Corvallis, was in the city Wednesday.

C. L. Long went to Salem Wednesday.

John Nixon has gone to Black Rock to work in the logging camp.

D. D. Barron of Salem, was in the city on business Tuesday.

R. L. Russell of Salem, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Ellis, a teacher at Rick real, was in the city Wednesday.

Mrs. Wallace returned from Portland Wednesday, where she has been for a couple of weeks.

Anthony Smith, a member of the U. S. Army, is visiting friends in the city.

J. C. Murray of San Francisco, Cal., was in the city in a business way the fore part of the week.

L. M. Hines and L. O. Smith of the metropolis of Oregon, were in the city Monday.

C. W. Bowers and Chas. Malson of Michigan, were in the city a few days this week.

Today and tomorrow will be your last chance to get a drink of that nice coffee at Peter Cook's.

Thos. Hart, who is working at Dallas, was home to spend Sunday. He has some idea of moving to Dallas or Springfield.

O. B. Travis expects to go to Portland next week, having sold his dray and transfer line in this city and will probably resume work on the railroad.

L. F. Savage and wife, Theodore Herron and Miss Myrtle Knowl of Salem, were here Tuesday. They came over to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hershberg, which was held near Suver.

Prof. J. H. Ackerman, president of the State Normal school at Monmouth was in the city Wednesday enroute to Portland where he spoke at a Washington's birthday social held by the Masons of the East side.

Francis (Lacey) Hershberg died at the home of her father, A. B. Lacey, near Suver last Monday and was buried Tuesday. The immediate cause of her early departure is said to have been bowel trouble. She was 17 years of age and well known in this vicinity.

You are cordially invited to worship with Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday. Sunday school at ten o'clock, morning service at 11. Evening worship at 7:30, at which time Dr. Dunsmore will deliver the third of the sermon-lectures on "The History of the World's Religions." Special music.

The L. T. L. met as usual on Sunday; the increase of membership is most encouraging to the leaders as well as the interest manifested in learning lessons that make for character. Meeting next Sunday as usual at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Wilcox February 16. It was a very good meeting and an increased attendance was noted. They adopted plans for a Mission Tea to be held in the near future. The next meeting will be held at the same place on the last Thursday in March.

This Is One Of Over 50 New Style Ideas

Issued by America's biggest tailoring house, the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. of New York and Chicago

It would be well to call and look them all over before you decide on your new clothes. You will be delighted with them. It would be well also to see the marvelous display of all wool fabrics, and compare the prices with others. Remember International Clothes are made only to your own measure and they must be right before you wear them. Otherwise you needn't take them.

O. A. KREAMER, Independence, Or.

To Please is Our Delight.

WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons.

Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords.

Our Shoes

are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley.

Our Compliments

and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in the THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim. . . .

Drexler & Alexander

GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

The Arcade Cigar Store

F. A. WILLIAMS

CIGARS, TOBACCOS, CANDIES, SOFT DRINKS AND CONFECTIONERY

C STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

STAR

Motion Picture Show

MOVING PICTURES ILLUSTRATED SONGS 3 CHANGES A WEEK MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS & FRIDAYS ADMISSION 10 CTS.

EVERY TENTH SALE FOR CASH

UNTIL MARCH 1, 1911.

Today and Tomorrow is the winding up of our Coffee Deal. Until then we will give 1 lb. free with every 3 lbs sold.

Come in today and tomorrow and drink COFFEE WITH US.

We have secured the agency for the celebrated R. & G. CORSETS and a full line will be in next week. Don't fail to call and get a perfect corset at the right price.

OUR GROCERY DEPARTMENT IS ALWAYS COMPLETE

PETER COOK

Rickreal, Ore.

Independence, Ore.