

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

L. F. Hooper expects to erect a new home in the city early in the spring.

Chas. E. Hicks of Portland, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. Sarah Wood is visiting in Yamhill.

Take your clocks and watches to A. M. Brown. He guarantees his work and does it promptly.

If you have anything to sell take it to A. M. Brown, the New Second-hand Store.

J. W. Allen of Salem, visited at the home of his uncle, Sanford Snyder over Sunday.

FOR SALE—Rhode Island Red cockrels, also eggs for setting.—Both Phones.—I. M. Jackson.

A. M. Brown transacted business in Portland the latter part of last week.

Fritz Weber went to Portland last week and his family will move down in a short time.

H. C. Townsend of Portland, was in the city a short time Friday, going to Salem that morning.

Mr. Hartley of Salem, was in the city this week. He has been looking after his interests here.

Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank, Bell phone 121; independent, 4410.

Miss Grace Wallace, who is attending school at Corvallis, spent vacation week at her home in this city.

Mrs. J. S. Bohannon and daughter, Miss Bertha, who have been in California for a few weeks, arrived in the city Saturday.

The Sherman property in this city was recently sold to a Mr. Eichenberger who is now making improvements on the same.

The Enterprise family spent Friday in Salem, returning in the evening with Miss Kora Browne of Silverton, who remained until Sunday.

Hop growers have been taking advantage of the beautiful weather in February and work in the several yards is progressing rapidly.

As the time approaches for the races and stock show the interest in the same increases. Several Salem people are formulating plans to camp here during the week.

Hanna Bros. are making some marked improvements on their farm in the way of building. Messrs Finch and Collins are the artists having the work in charge.

The Enterprise office has just finished printing the constitution and by-laws of the I. O. O. F. lodge in this city. The book contained nearly fifty pages.

Chet Down of Silverton, arrived in the city Friday morning and is working in Dee Taylor's barber shop. Mr. Down is a first-class barber and can "scrape" acquaintance in Independence without pain.

One span of bay geldings, weight over 2800, coming four and five year old, one bay mare, weight 1250; two sets of harness and two farm wagons.—O. T. Murphy. Home Phone, 1451. p-39-0.

C. L. Long went to McMinnville Friday, driving down the Studebaker E. M. F. which was sold to Mr. Messner by the firm of Long and Campbell. Mr. Messner accompanied him home. He was at one time a merchant of Independence.

Surveying of all kinds done, and special attention given to plating, and setting out of orchards. All work guaranteed. Don't forget the number, 158 S. Commercial St. up stairs, Phone Main 204, Salem, Oregon. n39-2.

The roads were dry and dusty last week, but a little shower mixed with a few flakes of snow, settled the dust. Seldom have country roads been in better condition at this time of year. Automobiles, motorcycles and bicycles have been running all over the country.

Friends of R. E. Ferguson, who was seized with a stroke of paralysis a few weeks ago, will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering in as much as he has suffered with the same difficulty three or four times. It was believed he could not survive the last one, but he is now on the road to recovery.

March came in quite lamblike.

Dr. Allin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg.

D. O. Taylor and wife were in Portland a few days this week.

Mrs. Wm. Percival visited in Dallas the fore part of this week.

W. E. Craven was in Corvallis on business Tuesday.

I. W. Dickinson transacted business in Dallas Monday.

A. W. Wilson, of Hood River, was in the city on business Tuesday.

O. D. Byers of Houma Vista, was in the city Monday.

Rupert Dickinson sold his race horses this week to a Mr. Bowers of Portland.

James B. Johnson, formerly employed in this office, was up from McMinnville Sunday.

Mr. Roy Whitaker of this city, and Miss Soren of Portland, were married at Dallas last Monday.

W. W. Wells has lately moved from the McGowan property to his hop yard.

WANTED—Your old stoves, furniture, or anything you don't want.—A. M. Brown.

E. F. Black and son, Charlie, are employed at Sloper Bros. hop yard in American Bottom.

A home talent entertainment was given in the Star Theatre Thursday evening and the proceeds go for the benefit of the library.

C. W. Irvine purchased a new automobile from R. M. Wade & Co. this week and it will arrive in a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Weisenfluh was taken to Portland this week where she is receiving medical treatment in a hospital at that city.

Frank Carry of Portland, was in the city a few days last week demonstrating the speed and quality of the R. M. Wade & Co. automobile.

Horace Addis, a representative of The Rural Spirit, a stock journal published at Portland, was in the city on business Tuesday.

Grandma Wells, who has been very poorly this winter, is again able to be about, and was a pleasant caller in Buena Vista Thursday.

Mr. Newbegin of Portland, a representative of the R. M. Wade Co., was looking after the company's interests in this vicinity—the fore part of the week.

Regular services at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday with Sunday school at 10 o'clock, morning worship with sermon at 11. Public are cordially invited to all these services.

Musical Merchandise of all kinds at lowest prices; Victor and Victoria Talking Machines a specialty; Violins on installments. Salem Music Co., 135 N. Liberty St., Salem, Ore. n40-4.

The basket ball game played in the auditorium Saturday evening between the Independence and Newberg basketball teams, resulted in favor of the latter. The score was 32 to 16. It is the last game of the season.

Ginghams, Ginghams, yes, Ginghams.—Our new spring line has arrived. Torle Du Nord, A. F. C. and French ginghams, in all the latest patterns and colorings—you will find them at Conkey, Walker & Lehman's.

Several members of the Woodmen of the World gave the Circle a surprise last Friday evening at the close of the meeting. They carried into the hall an abundance of ice cream and a delightful time followed.

Arthur Steel of Buena Vista, was in the city last Thursday and took a new manure spreader home with him. This is said to be the first one sold in this vicinity for some time and was purchased from R. M. Wade & Co.

Jack Frost was doing a little work in Oregon the first of the week and with a severe wind blowing from the top of Mt. Hood, it seemed like a more frigid climate than Willamette valley people are accustomed to.

Mrs. Mary E. Stansberry has returned from Corvallis, where she spent some time visiting with her numerous friends. While there she made her headquarters at the boarding house conducted by Mrs. Stone, and recommends that place to Independence people who have an occasion to visit the O. A. C. city.

Miss Hattie Black spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harley Prather.

Chas. Sheffield was in Moonmouth Tuesday.

Ed Prouty of Albany, was in the city on business Monday.

Everybody is invited to see our new spring hats.—Mrs. S. D. Simons.

Geo. W. Jones of Salem, was in the city the fore part of the week.

J. W. Henes of Albany, was in the city on business Monday.

Rupert Dickinson transacted business in Salem Wednesday.

Claude Sanders of Salem, was in the city Sunday.

Mr. VanWatters of Ashland, was in the city several days this week.

L. F. Woodard of Salem, transacted business in the city Monday.

Crabs and salad in bulk at Mission Cafe. It.

Oysters in bulk, quantity to suit.—Mission Cafe. It.

Hanna Bros. received a lot of new buggies by boat Wednesday evening.

W. W. Williams of Airie, was in the city on business yesterday.

E. A. Rhaten of Salem, was in the city Wednesday.

Jas. Helmick of Luckiamute, was in the city yesterday.

E. J. Engdahl of Salem, was in the city Monday.

I. M. Morgan of Corvallis, transacted business in this city Tuesday.

G. S. Hampton of Wichita, Kansas, was looking over this section of the state this week.

Thomas Hart expects to move to Springfield next week where he has a position for the summer.

Call and see the Lance Automatic Railroad Switch. Saturday is the last day to demonstrate at Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Shafer of Corvallis, have moved onto Mrs. McGowan's farm, south of this city.

Will Shafer and family of Corvallis, have moved into Mrs. McGowan's house.

Non-explosive gasoline and kerosine at A. M. Brown's, also the cans that purify the oil.

A swell line of ties have just been received at our store. Special prices on half dozen lots. Yours for ties.—Peter Cook. It.

Our line of men and boy's clothing cannot be beat for price, quality and style. Always the latest at our store.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, will give a Missionary Tea at the home of Mrs. Wilcox Friday, March 10.

The school board and teachers held a meeting last evening, the result of which may be published in our next issue, if meritorious.

It is time yet to take advantage of the opportunity to get the Enterprise and the Weekly Oregonian for $2.00 a year. Do not wait much longer for the time is limited.

The mayor at Salem has retarded the progress of that city by refusing to sign the franchise granted to the Salem, Falls City and Western Railroad, which was granted by the city council. The Railroad company will not accept a compromise and the road will not be extended on to the Capital city.

H. Hilschberg, C. W. Irvine, Dr. O. D. Butler, Ross R. Nelson, K. C. Eldridge and Dr. Dunsmore all of this city, attended the Shriners' ceremonial in Portland last Saturday evening where 85 candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the degree. The two latter named gentlemen were members of the class. A very pleasant time is reported.

The low railroad rates from the east and east central points went into effect March first and thousands of people in the cold country now are thinking of Oregon. Many have taken advantage of the first opportunity to move west and some, in fact, did not wait, but started during the month of February. Oregon population is increasing fast.

New Easter Suits

NOW IS THE TIME
TO BUY YOUR EAST-ER SUITS.

O. A.

KREAMER

HAS A NICE LINE OF
READY TO WEAR
CLOTHING

THAT JUST ARRIVED

If you prefer a tailor-made suit he will take your measure and have it made to order.

HE GUARANTEES A PERFECT FIT AND ENTIRE SATISFAC-TION.

Independence, Ore.

To Please is Our Delight.

WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons.

Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords.

Our Shoes

are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley.

Our Compliments

and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim. . . .

Drexler & Alexander

GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

The Arcade Cigar Store

F. A. WILLIAMS

CIGARS, TOBACCOS, CANDIES, SOFT DRINKS
AND CONFECTIONERY

C STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

STAR

Motion Picture Show

MOVING PICTURES ILLUSTRATED SONGS 3 CHANGES A WEEK
MONDAYS, WEDNESDAYS & FRIDAYS ADMISSION 10 CTS.

Money Talks

IF YOU DON'T THINK SO COME IN AND WE WILL CON-VINCE YOU.

A New Line of Ginghams Just Received

SHOES OF THE LATEST LEATHERS, SHAPES AND STYLE, AT THE CORRECT PRICES.

OUR COFFEE DEPARTMENT CANNOT BE EXCELLED IN THIS OR ANY OTHER TOWN. REMEMBER THE NAME. PEERLESS, MENADO, AND ORIENTAL.

PETER COOK

Rickreal, Ore.

Independence, Ore.