

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Dr. Allin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg.
FOR SALE—Spitz pups. Inquire of C. Trull.
 Rev. W. J. Weber was in Salem Monday.
 Roy Whiteaker and bride moved into E. Tripp's house Tuesday.
 Glen O. Graves of Portland, has been in this city most of the week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Hays were in Salem Friday of last week.
 H. Hirschberg purchased a new automobile one day this week.
 Thomas Hart expects to move to Springfield next week where he has a position for the summer.
WANTED—A girl for house work. Two in family, easy work. Good pay. Apply at Mission Cafe.
 Long & Campbell have purchased a new E. M. F. Studebaker, due to arrive from Portland today.
 See "The Man from Italy" at the M. E. Church, Friday evening, March 10.
FOR SALE—Rhode Island Red cockrels, also eggs for setting.—Both Phones.—I. M. Jackson.
 Will Independence celebrate the fourth of July this year? It is not too early to begin thinking about it.
 Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank, Bell phone 121; Independent, 4410.
 Mrs. F. A. Spurr, who has been in California most of the winter, returned to Independence last week.
WANTED—Your old stoves, furniture, or anything you don't want.—A. M. Brown.
 Dr. Hewitt, who has been confined to the house with an attack of influenza for sometime, is regaining his health rapidly.
 Our line of men and boy's clothing cannot be beat for price, quality and style. Always the latest at our store.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.
 John Robinson is having a water works system installed at his farm near the city, erecting a large tower and windmill with which to furnish the supply of water.
 One span of bay geldings, weight over 2800, coming four and five year-old, one bay mare, weight 1250; two sets of harness and two farm wagons.—O. T. Murphy. Home Phone, 1451. p-39-0.
 Mrs. Mary E. Stansberry was in Salem one day last week to see her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Ball, who was in the hospital there, but is now at her home in this city, having returned several days ago.
 D. O. Taylor has leased the building now occupied by W. T. Ball and will occupy the same for a barber shop as soon as he can get possession. What Mr. Ball intends to do has not yet been decided.
 Mrs. F. A. Dunsmore, County President of the Women's Christian Temperance Union went to Portland on Monday to attend the mid-year meeting of the society, which was held on Tuesday and Wednesday. She will return about the end of the week.
FOUND—A pair of gold bowed spectacles, lenses especially ground for far sighted person. They were picked up near Talmage during the month of November. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

W. G. Shafer moved his family here from Corvallis last week.
 J. S. Cooper made a trip to Salem and Portland Wednesday.
 Mrs. E. E. Tripp has been quite ill for a few days past.
 Benton Bower of Albany, was in the city this week on business.
 Rev. W. J. Weber went to Sheridan Wednesday to show "The Man from Italy."
 Take your clocks and watches to A. M. Brown. He guarantees his work and does it promptly.
 W. E. Craven returned from Corvallis Wednesday where he has been on business for several days.
 The Baptist church society has purchased a new piano to be used in the church.
 Rev. W. J. Weber was in Canby and other east side points last week, giving stereopticon lectures.
 Non-explosive gasoline and kerosene at A. M. Brown's, also the cans that purify the oil.
 Walter Barkus of Salem, was in the city Friday, enroute to Dallas, where he was looking up a business location.
 Rev. W. J. Weber gave the Missionary Lecture, "The Man from Italy," in Albany and other points last week. It will also be given in Salem.
 A swell line of ties have just been received at our store. Special prices on half dozen lots. Yours for ties.—Peter Cook.
 Our new stock of spring hats for men and boys, just arrived. Come in and let us show you something swell.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.
 Nearly 100 colored views, illustrating Italian life on both sides of the continent—at the M. E. Church Friday evening, March 10th.
 The Junior basket ball team went to Monmouth Friday evening and suffered defeat at the hands of the young tossers at that place.
 Any intelligent person may earn a good income corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary. Send stamp for full particulars. Empire Press Syndicate, Middleport, N. Y.
 Musical Merchandise of all kinds at lowest prices; Victor and Victrola Talking Machines a specialty; Violins on installments. Salem Music Co., 135 N. Liberty St., Salem, Ore. n-40-4.
 Long & Campbell sold a Maxwell automobile this week to C. W. Hinkle. The car will be here soon. Long & Campbell now have the agency for this make of cars.
 Having purchased a "Little Wonder" gasoline sheep and goat shearing machine, I am prepared to do all kinds of work in the line of shearing.—H. F. McElmurry. n-41-3.
 Let us make your abstract of title for you. Satisfaction guaranteed.—Brown & Sibley, Attorneys and Abstracters, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon. 41-1f.
 Gingham, Gingham, yes, Gingham.—Our new spring line has arrived. Torle Du Nord, A. F. C. and French gingham, in all the latest patterns and colorings—you will find them at Conkey, Walker & Lehman's.
 C. Trull has taken out his billiard and pool tables and converted his place into a neat appearing confectionery store. He has made a great improvement in the appearance of things.

Ed Owen visited his family in the city over Sunday.
 Read the many new ads in this issue. It will be of interest to you.
 E. M. Young transacted business in Dallas one day the preceding week.
 J. W. Stark of Eugene, spent a few days at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Allin this week.
 Geo. Rose of Seattle, arrived in the city Tuesday and is looking after his interests here.
 Mrs. Boydson and daughter, Mabel, and Miss Freda Campbell visited in Salem during the week.
 J. W. Richardson Jr. has been helping Mr. Robinson put in his water works plant this week.
 A. M. Brown went to Brownsville Saturday and brought back his automobile.
 If you have anything to sell take it to A. M. Brown, the New and Second-hand Store.
 R. Rogers sold his farm during the week to a party from Portland, whose name we did not learn. Mr. Rogers has moved to town.
 Mr. Walters of Ashland, purchased the Benton Bower 110 acre farm north of town this week, and will take possession at once.
 Martin Harvey of Monmouth, was in the city Monday and purchased a new gasoline fruit sprayer from Hanna Bros.
 Lee Whitcomb, Lynn Huntley, Wm. Wood, Gladys Beyers, Bessie Hartman and Bertha Collins took a joy ride to Dallas Saturday evening and attended a basket ball game.
 Eggs for setting. Thoroughbred Plymouth Rocks, S. C. White Leghorns, S. C. Brown Leghorns and White Orpingtons.—J. G. McIntosh. Both Phones. n-40-1f.
 If you are looking for the noblest as well as quality, in foot wear, remember we carry the largest and best stock of men's ladies' and children's shoes to be found on the West Side. Conkey, Walker & Lehman.
 Just received from Chicago by express, neck wear, fancy hat pins, collar pins, hand bags, etc. You will find a very select and up to the minute line here.—Conkey, Walker & Lehman.
 B. Wilson, who has been quite sick this winter, suffered a relapse last week, and his condition seemed more serious than it did when he was first taken down with pneumonia, but he seems to be improving just now, and will probably fully recover.
 R. E. Ferguson's physical condition is not improving as rapidly as has been hoped for, during the past week. Friends of the good real estate man fear that he may never fully recover from the stroke of paralysis which seized him a few weeks ago.
 A horse tied in front of Williams' drug store became frightened at a passing automobile Friday evening and undertook to beat the record of the fastest machine, but before it could get fairly started the animal became tangled in the reins and fell down. But for the timely assistance of Clalre Thorp, considerable damage would have been done.
 Mrs. Rose L. McGrath of Portland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson of this city, was re-elected delegate to the Supreme Camp, Royal Neighbors, at the recent state camp meeting held in Salem. Eugene was selected as the next meeting place, at ten, preaching at eleven, B. Y. P. the state camp to gather there in 1914 U. at six forty-five and the evening meetings of this camp are held every service at seven thirty. The pastor will conduct a "Question Box" every Sunday evening. Come and bring your Sunday written questions regarding the Bible, school missionary, will be with us or Christian faith and living.—Arthur Saturday and Sunday, Sunday school R. Blackstone.

Diamond Rings form $8.00 to the Highest Values.

O. A. KREAMER
 The Jeweler
 Twenty-two Years of Service in INDEPENDENCE

Ladies' Watches at First-Class Article at from $12 to $45.

Gent's Watches
 Best Standard Makes
 at all Prices.

PLAIN AND CHASE RINGS
 from $1.00 up.

To Please is Our Delight.

WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons.

Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords.

Our Shoes

are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley.

Our Compliments

and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in the THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim. . . .

Drexler & Alexander
 GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

The Arcade Cigar Store

F. A. WILLIAMS

CIGARS, TOBACCOS, CANDIES, SOFT DRINKS
 AND CONFECTIONERY

C STREET, INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

FURNITURE

Bice & Calbreath's Good Furniture with a very large and carefully selected stock of Furniture, and our spring line of Wall Paper for your inspection, would it not be to your interest to call at our store for these Goods? We will make you special inducements to trade with us.

BICE & CALBREATH

Special for Friday and Saturday

BIG CUT ON UNDERWEAR
 SWELL LINE OF TIES, ONE FREE WITH EVERY FIVE.

New Stock of Raymond
 Just Received.

PETER COOK

Rickreal, Ore. Independence, Ore.