

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Dr. Ailin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg. Dave Simpson of Arie, was in the city on business Monday.

Mike Hogan of Eola, was in the city Friday.

Frank Miller of Salem, was in the city last Friday.

F. B. Shirley of Salem, was in the city on business last Friday.

J. C. Vanner is visiting with R. E. Ferguson.

C. L. Irvine of Summit, Benton county, is visiting relatives in the city.

C. W. Sloan visited with C. W. Richardson Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank, Bell phone James Campbell of Dallas, visited with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Sunday.

No explosive gasoline and kerosene at A. M. Brown's, also the cans that purify the oil.

H. B. Thieson of Salem, was looking after business matters here last week.

Editor Hayter and his father of Dallas, were in the city Saturday, enroute to Newport.

Black Minorca eggs for setting, 15 for 50 cents.—W. G. Shafer, Phone 651 p423

The good roads between Independence and Salem makes this an attractive place for joy riders.

WANTED.—A girl for house work. Two in family, easy work. Good pay. Apply at Mission Cafe.

W. B. Barham of Port Williams, Wash., is visiting D. L. Hodges this week. Mr. Barham was a resident of this city some nineteen years ago.

Samuel Ing'eborn, a recent arrival from Iowa, has purchased a farm near Arie. He was in this city a short time Tuesday.

The Perrydale debating team refused to debate with the Independence team, thereby granting the latter four points.

Wm. Ball, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to the Salem hospital Sunday, where he was operated on Monday.

Constance and Wilson have two young Percheron stock horses, 3 and 4 years old, which are a credit to this part of the country. They were raised near this city.

Eggs for setting. Thoroughbred Plymouth Rocks, S. C. White Leghorns, S. C. Brown Leghorns and White Orpingtons.—J. G. McIntosh. Both Phones. n-40-1f.

Rev. W. J. Weber transacted business in Salem Monday. Tuesday he departed for Eastern Oregon, where he expects to remain a couple of weeks.

Thos. F. Fox, wife and baby arrived here last Friday from Mountain Grove, Mo. They are visiting at the home of Ralph Bascue, a brother of Mrs. Fox. They expect to locate in or near Independence.

Consult Dr. Lowe at Independence Hotel March 31, and until noon April 1, about that head ache and eye ache. He does not go from house to house. Can furnish acres of Polk county references. Has had more than twenty years' experience. The wise will wait for him.

Mr. Foster of McMinnville, was in the city on business Monday.

Hon. J. H. Scott of Salem, was in the city Sunday.

Mr. Messner and family of McMinnville, were in the city Sunday.

W. L. Bice transacted business in Portland Monday.

G. L. Durrell purchased a new Millburn wagon last week.

William Sheman purchased a fine new buggy last week.

J. B. Parker made a trip to Astoria Wednesday.

T. M. Irvine made a trip to Salem last Friday.

George Jones purchased a new buggy from Hanna Bros. last week.

Farmers are complaining about it being too dry for working the soil successfully.

Jasper Kennedy of Rickreall, visited at the home of his son, W. G. Kennedy, Sunday.

Johnnie Johnson transacted business in Portland the latter part of last week.

Thos. Mills has improved the appearance of his house with a new coat of paint.

If you have anything to sell take it to A. M. Brown, the New and Second-hand Store.

WANTED.—Plain sewing. Mrs. Flora Johnston, fourth house north of the bridge.

FOR SALE.—10 horse power upright boiler, almost new. Also 6 horse power horizontal steam engine. Two bargains.—Independence Creamery.

Miss Lorene Parker and Miss Kunz came up from Silverton Saturday and spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—The building and lot occupied by the Independence Laundry. Phone Home 2014, or inquire at this office.

James B. Johnson, who has been operating a machine at McMinnville for some time, has accepted a position as operator in this office and commenced work Monday.

Mrs. L. H. Hankey of Pendleton, Oregon, visited with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Stansberry, and sister, Mrs. W. T. Ball, the past week, returning to her home Wednesday.

Fred W. Lahire, who recently purchased the cottage near the Spaulding lumber office, moved into the house this week. He is painting and repairing the same.

W. S. Kurre departed Friday for Portland to resume work as forest ranger. He will work on the Bull Run range. Mrs. Kurre will spend a few weeks with her parents near Scio.

Any intelligent person may earn a good income corresponding for newspapers; experience unnecessary. Send stamp for full particulars. Empire Press Syndicate, Middleport, N. Y.

Velvet lip glass frames won't hurt the ears. "Fairy" eye glasses will fit any nose. Have Dr. Lowe show them to you. He has everything up-to-date in his line.

Let us make your abstract of title for you. Satisfaction guaranteed.—Brown & Sibley, Attorneys and Abstracters, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon. 41-1f.

Let the Commercial Club get busy. Frank Whittaker and wife of Albany, visited relatives here Sunday. See those gasoline irons in A. M. Brown's show window.

W. H. Walker is having some cement walk put in this week.

Homar Mills is putting in a cement walk for J. W. Rich.

Fred Hooper's new luncheon assuming proportions.

Fred Hooper has been on the sack list for a few days.

The Richardson sisters are having a cement walk put down in front of their home this week.

Mrs. Fritz Webber and children left for California last Sunday morning.

Pig's feet, tripe, salt mackerel, salmon bellies, luncheon tongue at the Mission Cafe, served or for retail.

John R. Collins left for Hasty Sunday to visit his father for a few days.

Miss Carrie Quasdorf and Gretchen Kreamer were Salem visitors over Sunday.

Miss Ida Richardson visited with her sister, Mrs. H. Douglas at Canby, Sunday.

WANTED.—Your old stoves, furniture, or anything you don't want.—A. M. Brown.

Dr. W. H. Byrd of Salem, was here on professional business, having come in his auto.

Mrs. Martha Hill has recently had a cement walk laid in front of her suburban home.

Mrs. W. R. Allen returned Tuesday from a visit with her parents in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Williams visited the former's father in Arie over Sunday.

D. J. Purvine has just completed a neat cottage near the High School, which he will soon occupy.

Mrs. C. G. Long is spending the week with Mrs. Carl Percival at American Bottom.

Miss Nettie Snyder has a position as assistant deputy in the Independence postoffice.

The Poverty Social held in K. of P. Hall last evening by the Christian church, was a grand success in every respect.

L. F. Savage of Salem, J. C. Scott of the Baldwin Piano Co., and Walter Sears of Dallas, were in the city on business Monday.

Dr. L. L. Hewitt accompanied Wm. Ball to the hospital at Salem and assisted in an operation which is pronounced successful.

Ell Joy has purchased the Withrow property. He took possession this week and is painting and otherwise improving the house.

Boys may be had and some girls. The older ones at ordinary wages and others to be schooled and cared for in return for slight services rendered.

If you have never used land plaster, you should start to do so this spring. It will pay you well. For sale by the Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. Get some now. N-43-44.

St. Patrick would have been proud of our city marshal and "Billy" McAdams if he could have seen the beautiful decorations of green worn by those individuals last Friday.

C. Truitt is making further improvements in his confectionery store this week. In the back room he is going to fit up an nice ice cream parlor and be prepared to handle the trade this season in a comfortable manner.

Read in Sunset Magazine, Motoring Through California by Lloyd Osbourne. Beautifully illustrated in four colors. The Spell, a romantic serial by C. N. & A. M. Williams, in the Shadow of the Dragon by Grant Carpenter. Descriptive story of San Francisco's Chinese quarters. (April issue now on sale—15 cents.

Yes, that trick of looking over the glasses is ridiculous. Two pairs of glasses are a nuisance. Call at the Independence Hotel Mar. 31 and April 1, until noon, and have Dr. Lowe show you the new glasses with which you can see all distance, one solid piece of glass. No lines or seams to collect dirt and strain the eyes. Free demonstrations. Remember the date.

The final teachers' meeting will be held in Dallas April 1.

O. A. Kreamer has a new electric clock sign in his store window.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Keadart Tuesday evening.

Mrs. G. W. Conkey is visiting her brother in Corvallis.

Burt N. Bourds of Portland, is in the city this week on business.

Rev. Robert A. Lion of Eola, will occupy the pulpit in the M. F. church next Sunday morning and evening.

Four sheets for sale, can be seen one-half mile east of I. O. O. F. cemetery.—Wm. McKinney.

For particulars address W. T. Gardner, St. Paul, Boyl and Girl's Aid Society of Oregon, Portland, Ore.

Swell new piano in rich mahogany at a sacrifice. See B. F. Swope for price and terms.

Maurice Butler held the lucky number for the 35-35 Savate rifle raffle Monday by Floyd Williams.

Ross Nelson is in Portland completing arrangements for his sale of imported Jerseys on May 2.

W. T. Baldwin and wife of Salem, spent Sunday with relatives in the city.

Miss Geneva Wilcox returned Tuesday from an extended visit to Eugene and Portland.

A shower of rain was warmly welcomed Wednesday night by the hop men.

Mr. John Fluke is very ill at his home on Fourth street, but his friends will be glad to learn he is making some improvement.

Frank Cafer and Grant Brown of Junction City, are visiting at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Chas. Blanchard.

Mrs. Mary S. Johnson, formerly of this city, came up from McMinnville Wednesday for a few days' visit with friends in this city.

A grand mask carnival will be given in the auditorium Saturday, April 1. Tickets 35c. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes.

Mrs. Laura Miller has organized a class in china painting and will be here every alternate Saturday and Monday, when she will be glad to meet any who wish lessons or want work done in decorating, at Mrs. Claude Skinner's residence on Monmouth street.

There was "house-cleaning" at the Library one day last week. The rooms and book cases having been thoroughly fumigated.

C. W. Henke and Mrs. W. H. Walker were Corvallis and Philomath visitors over Sunday. They made the trip in Mr. Henke's new Maxwell runabout.

Miss Edith West has resumed her work as teacher in the second grade of the public school after a few weeks' illness at her home in Tacoma.

The Royal Arch Masons entertained the Grand High Priest, Mr. Miller of Eola, Friday evening. H. W. Tesson of Salem, was also present. A sumptuous banquet was spread.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCready of Portland, visited relatives here and in Monmouth the first of the week en route to Corvallis, where Mr. McCready will be associated with his brother in the lumber business.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Fisher of Salem, were visitors here Sunday.

W. A. Messner and family came up from McMinnville Sunday in their new "E. M. F." automobile recently purchased from Long & Campbell. After a few hours' visit they returned home by way of Salem.

YOU GET THERE WITH BOTH FEET

when you buy your Shoes from us—land right every time and get a bargain as well. We assure you the best material in your Shoe—the kind that will wear long, and we give you the best style, because all our Shoes are made on the latest lasts. Comfort and fit go with every pair, and the prices will put you at ease, as well as the wearing of the Shoes.

O. A. KREAMER, Independence Oregon

To Please is Our Delight. WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons. Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords. Our Shoes are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley. Our Compliments and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim. Drexler & Alexander GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

CANNED GOODS We have 50 cases of tomatoes to dispase of and are selling at 3 cans for 25c. Also 25 cases of corn at 10c a can. Highest price paid for country produce at all times. Consult us before selling PETER COOK Rickreall, Ore. Independence, Ore.

$55.00 ON TIME, $50.00 ...CASH... Don't pay an exhorbitant price for a Cream Separator when you can get the best machine in the world, The New Elgin; at a reasonable price. We buy direct from the manufacturer in the East, in quantities, pay the cash and cut out the middlemen, is why we can sell at these prices. For particulars write or call on INDEPENDENCE CREAMERY