

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps.

TALES MAYOR FROM SALOON

CHIEF OF POLICE ESCORT HIM FROM SALOON AT 1 A. M.

"Reform" Executive of Capital City and Fellow Hop Dealers Loath to Leave

SAL M. CR.—After opening the administration in the role of a reformer, Mayor Lachmund with Kola Neis, Conrad Krebs, Julius Pincus, of this city, and men giving the names of George Wilson and Arthur Anderson, of Portland, were taken out of town Sunday morning by Chief of Police Hamilton after they had been warned a number of times by Patrolman Cooper to leave. The ordinance here provides that saloons shall close at 12 o'clock midnight.

No definite action has been instituted by the Chief of Police in relation to their cases and after he had ordered them from the saloon he allowed them to leave for their homes. Considerable secrecy was maintained in regard to the affair and news of it did not become known until Sunday. It was with the greatest reluctance that the Chief of Police was persuaded to tell of the occurrence.

It is said that the men were singing and enjoying a revelry which caused the police officer first to remonstrate. They paid no attention to Patrolman Cooper and again he remonstrated after which he called the attention of Chief Hamilton to the circumstances.

"I am not positive just what action I will take in the matter," said the Chief of Police. "Because Mr. Lachmund is Mayor is no more reason why he should escape prosecution under the ordinance than any other person. But there are several ways of arriving at the result in this affair and so far I am unable to say just what I intend to do in the way of filing charges. So far the men have not been arrested."

The Marion Hotel paid a fine of $25 in court for keeping its bar open after hours.

Messrs. Lachmund, Neis, Krebs and Pincus are all prominent hop dealers here and are known all over the state. Kola Neis recently returned from a trip to Germany and was welcomed with open arms on his return. He is prominently connected with hop interests on the European Continent, where he frequently visits. Krebs is owner of one of the largest hop ranches in the world, this being situated near Independence. Lachmund is also a hop dealer of considerable prominence and owns ranches in the Valley as well.

Chief of Police Hamilton and City Attorney Grant Corby engaged in a long conference on the subject, but the result of their interview was not given out. The Chief of Police is an elective officer, while the City Attorney receives his appointment from the Council.

When the administration first went into office the Chief and the City Council locked horns over the rejection of Larry Murphy, who had been on the police force for several years. Chief Hamilton wanted to reject Murphy, but the Council voted to retain him over the head of the Chief.

Murphy resigned and quitted the trouble, but considerable ill feeling developed at the time which established something of a factional difference. Whether this will have any influence on Chief Hamilton's action at this time is not known.
