

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Dr. Allin, Dentist, Cooper Bldg.
A grand ball will be given at Suver Fr. day evening, April 14.

Dr. Duganne, Dentist, over Independence National Bank, Bell phone
Miss Hilda Olson of Silverton, was in the city Sunday.

J. S. Cooper transacted business in Portland the fore part of the week.

See those gasoline irons in A. M. Brown's show window.

C. W. Irvine and family visited in McMinnville Sunday, going down in his new Overland.

A. F. Shafmaster of Michigan, was in the city this week looking for a business location.

Rev. Sherwood of Salem, preached in the M. E. church last Sunday morning and evening.

If you have anything to sell take it to A. M. Brown, the New and Second-hand Store.

The Independence Garage was a busy place Sunday, and the center of attraction.

Joseph Kennedy, who has been working at Rickreal for a few months, has returned to Independence.

Miss Kora E. Browne of Silverton, visited at the home of her parents Saturday and Sunday.

A cement walk is being put down in front of the Whiteaker property on C street.

Craven & Moore have been making improvements in their store preparatory to the opening of the ice cream season.

Sperling Bros. will have charge of the meat market which they sold recently, until about the 15th of this month.

The Independence High School gave a banquet Friday evening to the debate team of this city and a very pleasant time is reported.

Dr. Butler and son went to Portland the fore part of the week and purchased a new Overland which they brought home with them.

Chas. E. Hicks traded his store building in this city to J. W. Shaver of Portland, for an automobile. It is understood that his house and lot in Silverton went in on the deal.

Residents of Independence are doing considerable cleaning and repairing around the city this spring and things are beginning to look more metropolitan.

F. J. Goodenough arrived from Salem Monday and is in charge of the new real estate office opened in this city. He expects to move his family here in the near future.

Rev. Weber, who has been spending a couple of weeks in Eastern Oregon, will be home this week and occupy the pulpit in the M. E. church as usual next Sunday.

Dick Crowley expects to start a livery at Airle this week, and is formulating plans for a successful business, which he will have in a hustle and pleasant manner have anything to do with it.

There are more fine driving horses in Independence than any other town of its size in Oregon, and the increased number of automobiles does not seem to remove the charm for a good driver.

Mrs. H. E. Browne visited in Salem last Saturday.

Ham fell this week and was heartily welcomed by the farmers.

J. R. Cooper and wife visited in Salem Saturday.

WANTED—To buy a good milch cow. Inquire at this office.

The assessor is making his annual visit in the city a present.

There is talk of organizing a tennis club in the city.

C. G. Long transacted business in Dallas Saturday.

A party of young people picniced on the river bank Saturday.

Mrs. O'Brien of Falls City, is in the city this week organizing a Royal Neighbors lodge.

WANTED—Your old stoves, furniture, or anything you don't want.—A. M. Brown.

C. McBeth has built an addition to his house and put in hot and cold water.

E. E. Paddock, who in Portland last week purchased linoleum for his beautiful new home in this city.

L. H. Fischer, the enterprising miller at Silverton, was in the city Saturday evening.

WANTED—Plain sewing. Mrs. Flora Johnston, fourth house north of the bridge.

The mask carnival held at the auditorium last Saturday evening called out a large crowd of young people, who seemed to enjoy the occasion.

Harvey Fischer was in the city Saturday enroute home from Silverton to Suver. He drove his sister's five hundred pound horse through.

G. A. Montgomery moved his family here from Clackamas county one day last week and expects to make Independence his future home. He is a recent arrival from North Dakota.

J. D. Layton & Son have made arrangements whereby they can furnish an automobile to persons desiring such, in connection with their livery business.

The amount of lumber leaving the Chas. K. Spaulding Lumber Company yard in this city is surprising. Building is in progress all around and in the city.

I. C. Matheny and Earl Peck have leased the skating rink from Oviatt Brothers and will put in new skates and new music. They will open three nights in each week.

Geo. Huntley and family have moved back to their home in the north part of town. Mr. Huntley has been working in Portland and Oregon City for several years.

$80.00 per month straight salary and expenses, to men with rig, to introduce our Poultry Remedies. Don't answer unless you mean business. Eureka Poultry Food Mfg. Co. (Incorporated.) East St. Louis, Ill.

Two auto loads of Silverton basket ball people stopped in the city a short time Saturday enroute to Monmouth where they played that evening. The score was 1 to 0 in favor of Silverton.

Miss Emma Kirkpatrick of Portland, who has been visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mary E. Stensberry, and friends for a month past, returned to her home Saturday. She expects to make her home in Seattle in the future.

Mrs. W. T. Ball is said to be improving in health a little.

Claude Erathby of Portland, was in the city Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Chas. Roberts is reported quite ill.

Ice cold drinks at our fountain.—Craven & Moore.

S. B. Walker is having the appearance of his house improved in the way of fresh paint.

Mrs. Gertie Akins of Vancouver, Wash., is visiting her father, John Floke.

Miss Eva Collins has accepted a position as sales lady at the new confectionery and bakery.

P. E. Chase, the jeweler from Mouth, was in the city on Thursday of last week.

The firm of Long & Campbell has been dissolved, Mr. Campbell retiring from the business.

C. G. Long went to Portland Tuesday to purchase a new car for Geo. Kuch.

Jasper Kennedy is making some improvements at his residence in this city.

Everet Gentry, who has been working in Washington for some time is visiting his parents on the east side of the river.

FOR SALE—10 horse power upright boiler, almost new. Also 6 horse power horizontal steam engine. Two bargains.—Independence Creamery.

F. E. Richardson of Portland, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, a few days this week.

Ellis Davidson has been visiting relatives and friends in the city for several days. Mr. Davidson formerly lived here.

JUST RECEIVED—Large consignment of wall paper in all the latest patterns. Call and see them.—Bice & Calbreath.

Eggs for setting. Thoroughbred Plymouth Rocks, S. C. White Leghorns, S. C. Brown Leghorns and White Orpingtons.—J. G. McIntosh. n-40-tf.

J. W. Weisley and mother arrived here from California last week and spent a few days at the home of Mrs. M. M. Wallace. Mr. Weisley is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Wallace.

All signs of rain faded during the month of March. It is said that have been the driest month of March that Oregon has experienced for more than twenty-five years.

Miss Maude Myers of Emmett, Idaho, a student in the Willamette Conservatory of Music, is visiting Miss Nettie Snyder at her home in Independence during the spring vacation.

Let us make your abstract of title for you. Satisfaction guaranteed.—Brown & Sibley, Attorneys and Abstractors, 610 Mill Street, Dallas, Oregon. 41-tf.

The Independence public school basket ball team went to Monmouth Saturday afternoon and defeated the public school team of that place so badly that it is a shame to give the score.

Miss Verdle McElmurry, who has been in a hospital at Salem for some time, was brought to her home in this city Monday, the move having been advised by the attending physician. Her mental condition has not been improved.

The Myers Brothers, who recently sold their property in this city to A. Frick, left last week for California, where they will spend some time visiting their sister. Mr. Frick is a recent arrival from South Dakota and has already taken possession of the house, having moved his family here.

Remember an A. O. U. W. policy carries a cash value, paid up on extended insurance value, something that no other fraternal policy carries. It is also the only one issued which gets cheaper as you get older. After three years you cannot lose it by failure to pay for a given number of years. Investigate the plan. There is none as good.

Read in Sunset Magazine, Motoring Through California by Lloyd Osbourne. Beautifully illustrated in four colors. The Spell, a romantic serial by C. N. & A. M. Williams. In the Shadow of the Dragon by Grant Carpenter. Descriptive story of San Francisco's Chinese quarters. April issue now on sale—15 cents.

Fresh candy at Craven & Moore's. Several from here are attending the horse show at Salem today.

More sewer pipe is being put down in the city this week.

Easter novelties at Craven & Moore's.

Mrs. M. W. Wallace visited her daughter at Corvallis over Sunday.

Miss Ruby Ehart left for Corvallis yesterday, after a brief visit home.

We have the most complete line of Easterpostals and novelties in the city.—Craven & Moore.

Craven & Moore contemplate installing a candy kitchen in connection with their business.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Jr., is assisting in the printing office at Monmouth this week.

Ice cream at Craven & Moore's. Craven & Moore have opened their ice cream parlor for the season's run.

N. Ross, the bridge engineer of the Southern Pacific railroad, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. A. R. Gardner of Kenewick, Wash., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Kirkland.

Will Pickel arrived from Montana Thursday, where he has been building a house on his homestead.

Mrs. Will Clodfelter, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Overson, Sr., left for her home in Albany Thursday.

Bice & Calbreath have just received a large line of wall paper comprising all of the latest patterns. Don't buy until you have seen our stock.

Regular services at Calvary Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and evening at 8. Special music at both services.

A small blaze in the roof of the bakery was discovered early yesterday morning, but was soon extinguished, and no alarm was turned in. It originated from a defective flue.

Dr. Dunsmore goes to Brownsville next Tuesday to attend the Spring meeting of the Willamette Valley Presbytery which convenes in that city on that date. He will return on Thursday.

If you have well located land or a good business proposition for sale at a reasonable price, write me at once enclosing self addressed stamped envelope for reply (owners only).—Address J. C. Ross, 816-2nd Ave So., Minneapolis, Minnesota. n 45-48.

WHILE WE ARE "AHEAD" of the meat business, it has become a serious matter with the ordinary wage-earner to know how to supply the family table with

WHOLE SOME MEAT
Although our margin is small, we buy only the best and give our customers the benefit of it, and every part of our market is kept clean and in a sanitary condition.

Geo. F. Heck, Proprietor
Independence, Oregon

Make a Clean Breast of It

Get a new shirt, or a number of them, from among our stylish designs for the present season. Maybe your linen closet needs still more replenishing—say in the matter of Collars, Cuffs, Handkerchiefs, etc. In Underwear, Socks, Ties and Gloves, we can give you complete and lasting satisfaction for little money. Our stocks are selected with a view to sterling quality and durability as well as recentness of style. Let us be your haberdasher.

O. A. KREAMER.

To Please is Our Delight.

WE feel that our success during the past year is due to our ability to please our many friends and patrons.

Our Line of Groceries is fresh and complete. In fact we make it a point to keep only the best the market affords.

Our Shoes

are the best money will buy, and the BARGAINS we are offering in that line are not to be equaled in the Willamette Valley.

Our Compliments

and best wishes are extended to all, and we hope to be regarded in the future as we have been spoken of in the THE HOME OF THE SQUARE DEAL, where satisfaction to all is our highest aim. . . .

Drexler & Alexander
GROCERS AND CLOTHIERS INDEPENDENCE, OREGON

$55.00 ON TIME, $50.00 ...CASH...

Don't pay an exorbitant price for a Cream Separator when you can get the best machine in the world, at a reasonable price. We buy direct from the manufacturer in the East, in quantities, pay the cash and cut out the middlemen, is why we can sell at these prices.

The New Elgin;

For particulars write or call on
INDEPENDENCE CREAMERY

THE HARDEMAN HAT

On account of putting in stock we are closing out this well known brand of hats. Come in and get that hat before your size is gone.

We buy country produce, also wool and pay the highest price for same at all times.

PETER COOK
Rickreal, Ore. Independence, Ore.