The Commercial Club met in regular session Tuesday evening and several matters of importance to the city were introduced and discussed at length, chief among which was means by which an advertising campaign can be started that will work a benefit to the community in general. The report of the secretary shows the membership on the increase.

The fire probably originated from a defective flue. Mrs. Mann was the first to discover the flames, and after rescuing her baby from the room she notified Mr. Mott who sent in the alarm by phone. The fire company responded quickly and a stream of water was soon turned upon the flames but not until the building was ruined. The fire had gained great headway before it was discovered, but the efficient service of the fire company soon extinguished the flames.

Wilson & Taylor sold the Brooks farm between here and Salem, Tuesday, to Van. Waters, consideration $14,000.

Messrs. Walters & Son have purchased several farms in this vicinity and expect to purchase more. They have surveyed eleven 10-acre tracts near this city, of the large farm recently purchased, and this will be set out to fruit and walnuts.

Mr. Walters said to an Enterprise representative a few days ago that no part of the state affords better opportunities than right here in the vicinity of Independence. He is in a position to speak from a standpoint of knowledge, having been in many parts of the state. He looked around considerably and invested in some localities before buying here, but he soon reached the conclusion that Independence is the place for the homeseeker, and now is the time to invest.
