UNITED STATES IS NOT GREEDY

Taft Denies Ambition to Extend Domain.

Allusion is to Mexico—Says We Know What War Means—Want None of It.

Baltimore, May 4.—President Taft in his speech at the opening of the Third National Peace conference here today, said the United States would keep hands off and not seek to extend its domain or to acquire foreign territory. He made no mention of Mexico, but to those who heard him it was evident that he referred to the southern republic.

"One of the difficulties the United States finds is the natural suspicions that the countries engaged have of the motives the United States has in tendering its good offices," continued the president. "Asseveration of good faith helps but little where suspicion is the rule, and yet I like to avail myself of an opportunity in such presence as this to assert that there is not in the whole length and breadth of the United States among its people any desire for territorial aggrandizement and that its people as a whole will not permit its government, if it would, to take any steps in respect to foreign peoples, looking to a forcible extension of our political power."

"We have had wars and we know what they are. We know what responsibilities they entail, the burdens and losses and horrors, and we would have none of them. We have a magnificent domain of our own in which we are attempting to work out and show to the world success in popular government, and we need no more territory in which to show this. But we have attained great prosperity and great power. We have become a powerful member of the community of nations in which we live and there is, therefore, thrust upon us necessarily a care and responsibility for the peace of the world in our neighborhood, and a burden of helping those nations that cannot help themselves, if we may do that peacefully and effectively."

The president spoke to several thousand persons in the Lyric theater. Cardinal Gibbons, Secretary of War Dickinson, Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, Count Leo Tolstoi, Andrew Carnegie.

Letter Brings Fortune. Leipsic, Saxony.—At an autograph sale here a letter written by Martin Luther to Emperor Charles V was bought by a Florence dealer for $25,500. The purchase is said to have been made for J. P. Morgan. The letter, which is in Latin, was written in 1521 during the reformer's return journey from Worms, describing the proceedings and defending his attitude before the diet. The epistle was entrusted to an imperial herald, who gave Luther safe conduct through the Thuringian forest.

LABOR WAR RAGES.

Chicago Workers Forced to Flee for Lives—Strike Spreads.

Chicago, May 4.—Professional sluggers and hired "gun men" ran riot in the city today, while government and state officials, architects, building contractors and international labor union officials worked in an effort to restore harmony in the industrial field. Late tonight all negotiations between the freight handlers and the railroads were declared off and a strike will probably be called tomorrow. This will involve the territory in an area from the Canadian border to New Orleans and the Pennsylvania line to Western Iowa. It will also bring in the teamsters in all affected cities.

A new element of discord was injected into the troubled building trades situation when the Otis Elevator company hired elevator constructors to take the place of the machinists who have been doing the work for two years. Sluggers working for the machinists who were ousted by the company raided a number of buildings and attacked the elevator constructors, with the result that one man is in the Alexander Brothers' hospital and a number of others are seriously injured.

In the plumbers and steamfitters' war, international association steamfitters were driven at the points of revolvers from two school buildings where they were employed.

Woman Mayor "Meets" Alone.

Hunnswell, Kan.—Hunnswell's new mayor, Mrs. Ella Wilson, has clashed with the city council. On Mrs. Wilson's motion the council voted last week to meet in a local hotel. The five councilmen went to the hotel to hold their meeting, but Mrs. Wilson "met" in a feed store. She had the clerk's journal and other papers, but as she alone was not a quorum, neither session transacted any business. Meanwhile two women who were to have been appointed city clerk and marshal, still lack their commissions.

Rainfall Insures Crop.

Spokane — Another rainfall wet down the Palouse and North Idaho regions and it was sufficient to satisfy everyone. In the Big Bend and Central Washington regions, however, the rainfall has not been heavy. Waterville reports enough moisture in the ground from winter snows to insure a bumper crop for Douglas county. Grant, Adams, Lincoln and Chelan county wheat fields need rain, which is promised by heavy clouds.

Frenchwoman is Spy?

Cologne, Germany—Mme. Thirion, an attractive Parisian resident here, was arrested charged with being a spy and obtaining the secret mobilization plans of the German army from an army officer. The prisoner offers the romantic defense that she had asked for the plans in order to test the honor of the officer, who was a suitor for her hand.
