About Peas.

I planted beans expecting peas to blossom there in May; the funny papers have a wheeze that things turn out that way. But where I planted beans, I find that only beans have grown. There is no doubt that things turn out sometimes as they are sown.—Washington Herald.

Duck's immunity to Snake Poison.

Experiments by M. M. Billard and Maubiant, recorded in the "Comptes Rendus" of the Biological society of Paris, shows that the common duck exhibits a remarkable indifference to the venom of the viper. They also find that the owl is similarly immune. Two of these, badly bitten on the feet, did not seem much worse. M. Billard also finds that the domestic cat has almost complete immunity as regards the viper.

Not So Bad as He Seemed.

A curious incident occurred at a children's matinee in a Moscow theater lately. The actor who played the villain of the piece was so distressed by the horror with which the little spectators viewed him that, notwithstanding the protests of the manager, he pulled off his wig and false beard, and begged the audience to believe that he was only pretending to be wicked.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case. She asks nothing in return except your good will, and her advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Whistling Kettle.

A new whistling kettle has a long, narrow neck at the top, by which it is both filled and emptied. This is covered by a cap the length of the neck, and at the top of this is a whistle which acts directly the kettle boils by reason of the steam passing through it.

WHERE HE EXPECTED TO GO

Cheerful Grocer's Clerk Makes Witty Reply to Housewife Who Wanted Only Fresh Goods.

"Have you any country butter?" the young housewife asked.

"No'm," the grocer's clerk responded, "but we have some near-butter."

"Well, have you any fresh leaf lard?"

"Sorry, ma'am; but I can give you some of our finest near-lard and you can't tell the difference."

"Well, of all the stores! Could I get a glass of honey for the children?"

"Er—I'm afraid not, ma'am; but we have some excellent near-honey."

The housewife sighed.

"Dear me!" she said reproachfully. "You should be ashamed to sell so many adulterated foods! Where do you expect to go when you die, young man?"

"Near-heaven, ma'am," calmly responded the clerk, as he chased a fly away from the prunes.—Judge.

Presence of Mind.

The burglar, having pocketed all the loose jewelry in sight, which was not much, roughly awoke the sleepers.

"I want them diamond armbands o' yours, ma'am," he said.

"Please don't tear them out of her ears," begged the husband; "I'll detach them and hand them to you myself."

"All right, sir. Quick, now!"

Subsequently the burglar learned that he had robbed the dwelling of Professor Presto, the magician, and that the professor had cleverly substituted a pair of glass imitations for the diamond armbands.

Appropriate Comments.

There are times when the pun, much abused and poverty-stricken and aged as it generally is, seems to justify its appearance. One day, when Mr. Potter was trying to read a romance story to his matter-of-fact wife, he had recourse to a pun to save his temper.

"And so the evening wore on," read Mr. Potter, "and—"

"What did it wear?" inquired his wife in her dryest tone.

"My dear," said Mr. Potter, after a scarcely perceptible hesitation, "if you must know, it was the close of an autumn day."—Youth's Companion.

AN INSULTING QUESTION.

Father has given me $100 every birthday since I was 21, and I have saved every cent of it.

"How many thousand dollars have you got in the bank?"

Unconverted.

"Jibbets read a pamphlet this morning advocating the use of predigested food."

"Didn't he have anything better than that to do?"

"No. He was waiting to be served a breakfast of pork chops, tomatoes and hot waffles."

"Was he frightened by what he read in the pamphlet?"

"No. He merely ordered some additional pork chops."

Where the Fighting Is.

"War with Japan seems imminent. These dreadful rumors alarm me."

"Too bad!"

"What would you do?"

"Well, I think I would switch magazines."

Good News.

"My dear, our landlord says he's going to raise our rent."

"Glad to hear he can do it. I can't."

From the Storehouse of the Eyes.

Eyes are bold as lions, roving, running, leaping here and there, far and near. They speak all languages; they wait for no introduction; they are no Englishmen; ask no leave of age or rank; they respect neither poverty nor riches, neither learning nor power, nor virtue, nor sex, but intrude, and come again, and go through and through you in a moment of time. What inundation of life and thought is discharged from one soul into another through them!—Emerson: "Conduct of Life."

Mother will find Mrs. Winslow's Baby Syrup the best remedy to use for their children during the teething period.

Scandinavian Courtship.

It was considered beneath the dignity of a Scandinavian warrior to court his bride by gallantry and submission; he always waited until she had bestowed her affections on another and was in her way to the marriage ceremony, then collecting his faithful followers they fell upon the wedding party and carried away the bride. It was much in favor of this practice that marriages were always celebrated at night.

Are These Your Selections?

According to a committee chosen by the Providence Evening News, the ten most beautiful words in the English language are melody, hope, love, home, sublime, joy, peace, gentle, life, friendship. The Evening News got up a contest among its readers, and the list given was unanimously approved by the judges. A set of Mark Twain's works was the first prize.

Church Barrel Organ.

Care of the Attic.

Few attics are ceiled, but if they are not light the walls and the beams should be treated to a coat of white paint or whitewash. Once a month the floor should be swept. The windows should be washed three or four times a year. Twice a year there should be a campaign waged against moth, roaches and possible bedbugs, as well as against larger vermin. Need for Women Architects.

It is a practically accepted axiom that there are too few women architects, for, if there is one subject more than another in which woman's talent is required, it is domestic architecture.—From the Queen.

MUNYON.

I AM taking the above text for the reason that I want to instill into this poor, self-reliant, self-motivated, self-sovereign, I want every person to feel that they are above deception, hatred, selfishness, jealousy, envy or revenge. I want the person who is pinched by poverty, who has suffered great reverses, who is weighed down with some great sorrow to become acquainted with the redeeming power of Hope. I want them to "take" Hope as a companion, as a light, as a "medicine," for Hope is an ambassador from God. It is a teacher that shows the beautiful. It fills our souls with songs and our tongues with praise. To be hopeful one must be well, and to be well one must be hopeful.

That the lower bowel is responsible for most bodily ill is now being recognized by the leading physicians throughout the world. They assist in digesting everything that is put into the stomach. They stimulate the liver into activity. They start the secretions of the stomach, which carry off all the bile and poisonous matters through the bowels. They strengthen the lower bowel, so that it expels itself naturally, without the aid of cathartics or foreign substances.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition. For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is a loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. When a man "doesn't feel just right," when he doesn't sleep well, has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach after eating, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the nutrition needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and so GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

Borrowed Bridal Finery.

In Norway every parish house has a set of ornaments for the temporary use of the bride, including a shawl coronal and girdle, so that the poorest women in the land appeared for one day in their life in a costume which they probably thought equal to that of a queen. The museum of national antiquities at Copenhagen contains a number of such sets of bridal decorations, which were at one time used in Denmark.
