KNOX-OVIATT WEDDING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Knox, in this city, was the scene of a pretty little wedding, at which their daughter, Pearl May, was united in matrimony to Wells Oviatt, by H. Campbell Clark, pastor of the Church of Christ.

At 9 A. M., the wedding march began to sound, and the contracting parties, followed by the minister, marched into the parlor. After some preparatory remarks, the happy young people took their positions in a beautiful arch, under a very pretty wedding bell, and the solemn words were spoken, binding them for life. A ring ceremony was used, but not the long, tedious one, so often used. Congratulations followed, and then the guests, a few select ones, partook of delicious refreshments.

These young people departed on the 10:40 train for Corvallis, followed by good wishes from all friends. Many of the newly-wed tokens were in evidence, which were the manifestations of the interest of friends far and in them.

These people need not our introduction. May happiness and prosperity, both temporal and spiritual, attend them, and the thorns few and the roses many be.

A Friend.

Its Easy to go Wrong

ON THE FURNITURE QUESTION, and many and many a housekeeper has done it. Most of them do it by means of mail order catalogues. In it they see pictures of beautiful furniture along with wonderful stories of cheapness. And they never stop to reflect that things are so fixed in this world that much cannot be bought for little. Furniture, of all things in the world, cannot be satisfactorily bought without an examination. We never tire of explaining all about the goods that we sell, and after you have made a selection you can be assured that what you purchase will make good in long service.

SOME OF OUR CLAIMS

We don't believe you can find a better all round place to fit out the home than right at this store. We don't believe that you can find a place that will deal more fairly than we will. We don't believe that, dollar for dollar, you can do quite as well anywhere else.

THESE ARE OUR CLAIMS, TO PROVE THEM IS OUR AIM.

Will you give us an opportunity to do so the next time you are needing something in our line?
