TURKS ARE REPULSED.

Attempt to Recapture Tripoli Results in Great Loss.
Tripoli—The Turks do not intend to abandon Tripoli to the Italians without further assistance. For several days they have been engaged in fighting in the vicinity of Italian outposts. Several times at night they have been discovered by the searchlights of the warships and shells drove them back to the hills.
Three thousand Turkish troops with field guns were discovered at 1 o'clock in the morning advancing in two columns, with the evident intention of recapturing the town. A large body of natives marched with the troops and presented a formidable army. The Italian commander, however, had an intimation that such an attempt probably would be made and his men were prepared.
The Italian guns, were well placed, and the Turks, were met by a heavy artillery and rifle fire, to which they replied with equal energy. At midnight, and the first dawn of the searchlights on the contending forces when the engagement was at its height, the battleships directing the shells to cover the Italian front and flank.
For an hour the firing on shore was continuous, but at 2 o'clock it ceased. The Turks retired in good order, although it is reported they suffered heavy loss. A body of Turks tried to turn the Italian eastern flank without success. The Italian casualties were slight.
The fleet pursued the retreating Turks with a heavy shell fire until 6 o'clock in the morning.
The looting by the natives which occurred after the bombardment, and the disorderly flight of the Turks, was so great that the work of 400 criminals left in prison, who beat down the doors and escaped. The looting made a clean sweep of the palace and the forts. Nothing was left but the bare walls and the great litter of official documents. Even doors and windows were removed and the powder magazines pillaged.
The Turks appear to have had enormous supplies of ammunition, guns, rifles and projectiles. Quantities of powder cartridges and shells have been recovered, and the Italians have blown up three large powder magazines. Laborers and escaped prisoners are constantly being recaptured.
Signs of the looting are visible on all sides by the attire worn by the miserable natives and the ragged native children, who for the first time in their lives are able to wear boots, fezzes and fine clothes, formerly the summer uniforms of Turkish soldiers.
One of the curious sights of the town is the appearance of the Turkish police and soldiers, who have been enrolled in the Italian service, all clad in Turkish uniforms and wearing Turkish arms, accompanying the Italian governor and other officials and aiding the Italian marines to restore order and arrest criminals.
WOMAN SUFFRAGE BEATEN.
California Adopts Initiative and Referendum and Judiciary Recall.
San Francisco—With returns from little more than one-tenth of the state at hand, the indications early Wednesday were that California had refused to grant equal suffrage to women, but had by emphatic vote adopted the initiative and referendum and the recall, the latter including the judiciary, as part of the organic law.
Twenty-three proposed amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth were voted upon. Of these the three mentioned and the proposal to make the state railway commission an appointive body and empowering the legislature to enlarge greatly the powers of the board, overshadowed in public interest all the rest. The last-named amendment also, according to early returns, has been carried.
Road's Loss a Million.
Denver—With communication with the principal lowlands in the flood-swept districts of Southwestern Colorado and Northwestern New Mexico re-established, it became apparent that the damage would not be as heavy as expected. The Rio Grande Southern railway has suffered heavy damage. Estimates place the railroad loss at $1,000,000. The reports at the dropping of 20 Navajo Indians at the Ship Rock agency in New Mexico was officially denied when communication was re-established.
Chinese Capital Falls.
Pekin—News has reached this city that the Chinese revolutionaries have captured Wu Ching, the capital of the province of Hu Pih, where trouble has been reported for several days. The commander of the troops defending the city was killed by a bomb and the victory escaped only by hasty flight. Five foreign gunboats stationed along the Yangtze river are protecting the city of Hankow, while Chinese gunboats are en route to other points.
New York Convictions Stand.
New York—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals has affirmed the conviction of the lower court of Charles R. Heike, ex-secretary of the American Sugar Refining company, and Ernest Gerbracht, ex-superintendent of the company's Williamsburg refinery, who were found guilty of participating in the underweight frauds.
