Calvary Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Dunsmore, pastor of Calvary Church, having returned from his extended Oriental trip, has resumed the regular services of the church. The Sunday School has been re-organized, and the system of graded lessons introduced, and the increased interest and attendance speaks most favorably for the change. Sunday School service is held at ten o'clock every Sunday morning, to which all, both large and small, are cordially invited. At eleven o'clock the regular morning worship is held, the pastor preaching next Sunday morning on the subject, "The Gospel of Christ, Its Power and Influence," with reference and comparison to some of the religions of the Far East.

In the evening Dr. Dunsmore will speak on some features of his travels in the East, which service begins at 7:30 o'clock. These Sunday evening "travel lectures" will be continued every Sunday evening during the winter, treating of the people, their customs and habits and conditions in Palestine, Egypt, Greece, Italy, France, and England. Special music will be rendered at each evening service by some of Independence's vocalists. The general public are cordially invited to all these services.
